48. Provides that the Council shall appoint a Disciplinary Committee which shall be responsible for:
   a. conducting disciplinary proceedings;
   b. enquiring into matters referred to it under section 50(4); and
   c. making recommendations to the Council.

49. Provides that the Disciplinary Committee shall comprise three members and include:
   a. An Attorney-at-Law of at least ten years’ standing, who shall be the Chairman;
   b. one member of the Council; and
   c. one person who is a member of and nominated by the TTSP, and has at least ten years’ experience in urban and regional planning.

50. Provides for the resignation and revocation of appointment of a member of the Disciplinary Committee.

51. Provides that the Council shall publish the names of the first Disciplinary Committee, and every change in membership thereafter, in the Gazette.

52. Provides that the Disciplinary Committee shall meet as often as necessary to perform its functions.

53. Provides that the Chairman of the Disciplinary Committee shall preside at all its meetings.

PART VI DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

54. Provides that an Urban and Regional Planner who breaches Part II, III, IV or VI of the Code of Ethics commits professional misconduct.

55. Provides that a person may file a complaint with the Council alleging the commission of professional misconduct. The Council shall refer such complaints to the Disciplinary Committee.

56. Provides that where the Council has reason to believe an Urban and Regional Planner has committed professional misconduct, or was convicted of an offence referred to in section 25(1)(b), it may direct the Disciplinary Committee to make enquiries.

57. Provides that the Council may make rules of procedure for the conduct of disciplinary proceedings.

58. Provides that the Disciplinary Committee shall have the power to summon and examine witnesses under oath.

59. Provides that the Disciplinary Committee shall have the power to call for the production of books and other documents.

60. Provides that if the Disciplinary Committee is of the opinion that a case of professional misconduct has been made out, it shall forward a report of its findings and recommendations to the Council within fourteen days.

61. Provides that subject to section 25(1) the Disciplinary Committee may recommend:
   a. dismissing the complaint;
   b. revoking a licence and removing the name of a Urban and Regional Planner’s name from the Register;
c. suspending a licence; and

d. reprimanding an Urban and Regional Planner.

62. Provides that the Council shall provide written reasons for its decisions pursuant to section 53(1).

63. Provides that where the Council:

a. suspends a licence; or

b. revokes a licence or removes the name of an Urban and Regional Planner from the Register

it shall publish the decision in the Gazette and in at least two daily newspapers in general circulation in Trinidad and Tobago.

PART VII OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

64. Provides that a person who practises urban and regional planning without a licence commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

65. Provides that a person who obtains a licence fraudulently is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

66. Provides that a person who makes a fraudulent entry on the Register commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

67. Provides that a person who practises urban and regional planning whilst suspended commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years.

68. Provides that where a registered Urban and Regional Planner is guilty of professional misconduct, the Council may, in addition to any penalty prescribed, impose a fine of ten thousand dollars.

69. Provides that the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions shall be obtained before any criminal proceedings are instituted under the Act.

PART VIII MISCELLANEOUS

70. Provides that the Council may appoint suitably qualified staff as necessary to perform its functions.

71. Provides that the Council shall determine remuneration and terms and conditions of its staff.

72. Provides that the Minister may, after consultation with the Council, make regulations for giving effect to this Act.

73. Provides that the Minister, upon consultation with the Council, may amend the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Schedules by Order.
Considerations

- The Bill is inconsistent with section four and five of the Constitution and requires a three-fifths majority in the House of Representatives and the Senate.
- The Bill gives the Minister the power to determine the remuneration and allowances of Council members.
- The Bill grants immunity to Council members in the performance of their functions.
- The Bill makes no provision for determining proficiency in the English Language.
- The Bill allows the Council to refuse the grant of a Temporary Licence if there is reason to believe that there are sufficient Urban and Regional Planners in Trinidad and Tobago and qualifying Caribbean Community States.
- The Bill allows the Council to appoint Recognition and Disciplinary Committees.
- The Bill gives the Council power to make rules of procedure for the conduct of disciplinary proceedings.
- The Bill gives the Disciplinary Committee the power to summon and examine witnesses under oath and call for the production of documents.
- The Bill provides that the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions is required before criminal proceedings are initiated under the Act.
