About this Guide

This guide provides a summary of expenditure for the Public Service Appeal Board for the period 2012-2018. It provides the Members of Parliament and stakeholders with an overview of the Board’s responsibilities. The primary purpose of this guide is to not only consolidate all of the information contained within the various Budget Documents pertaining to the Public Service Appeal Board, but also provide readers with an analysis of same. This guide is based primarily on the Draft Estimates of Recurrent Expenditure.
Head 12: Public Service Appeal Board

Department’s Overview¹

The Public Service Appeal Board was established under Section 130 of the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago to which “appeals shall lie from such decisions against public officers”. According to the Constitution, the Appeal Board consists of a Chairman, who is appointed by the President after consultation with the Chief Justice and two other Members, who are also appointed by the President after consultation with the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition.

The Chairman must be a Judge or former Judge or a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, who has held office as a Judge of a Court having unlimited jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters in some part of the Commonwealth or a Court having jurisdiction in appeals from any such Court.

The Public Service Appeal Board handles appeals for any decision that was given by a Service Commission, or any person to whom powers of the Commission have been delegated, as a result of disciplinary proceedings brought against a public officer.
