Children’s Authority

The principles which underpin the execution of the Children’s Authority’s functions – the promotion of and respect for children’s rights – are enshrined within the United Nations’ Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the UN Declaration and Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC). Consistent with these principles, a Package of Children’s Legislation initiated in 2000 formed the basis for the creation of the Children’s Authority. The pieces of legislation complement each other and provide for a robust system which brings Trinidad and Tobago in conformity with the provisions of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC). The mandate of the Children’s Authority is derived directly from the legislation. As such, the organisation will be responsible for, inter alia:

- Receiving and investigating reports of mistreatment of children
- Removing children from their homes where they are in imminent danger
- Making applications to the Court for the protection and placement of children received into the care of the Authority

Key Statement from 2016 Standing Finance Committee Debate

During the reading of the Appropriation (Financial Year 2017) Bill, 2016, the following statements were made in relation to the emphases of the Office of the Prime Minister for fiscal year 2016/2017:

“…The Cabinet of Trinidad and Tobago took a decision to return the security arrangements for the residence, the Diplomatic Centre and the Office of the Prime Minister to the law enforcement agencies of Trinidad and Tobago, and in particular the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force and the TTPS, Trinidad and Tobago Police Service. So, as a result of that, in returning the security arrangements for those establishments and the Prime Minister to the bodies that were set up originally to offer that protection at the expense of the State, it has meant a retrenchment in accordance with good industrial relations practice of the security services.”
