About this Guide

This guide provides a summary of expenditure for the Ministry of Communications (MOC) for the period 2018-2020. It provides Members of Parliament and stakeholders with an overview of the Ministry’s responsibilities. The primary purpose of this guide is to consolidate the information contained within the various Budget Documents pertaining to the Ministry of Communications, and provide readers with an analysis of same. This guide is based primarily on:

- the Draft Estimates of Recurrent Expenditure;
- the Estimates of Development Programme;
- the Public Sector Investment Programme; and
- the Auditor General’s Report on the Public Accounts of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago for the fiscal year 2018.
Head 70: Ministry of Communications

Overview

Mission
To promote open government, through centralized, timely and accurate communication to engage and empower citizens.

Vision
To be the leader in credible government and public information.

The Communications Portfolio

The Communications Portfolio remains an essential part of any governance arrangement in a democratic society. The Ministry of Communications, in its current construct, is tasked with:

- Leading government communications and information.
- Facilitating public access to information.
- Providing archival research services.
- Providing government printing services.
- Ensuring the security of private data collected by public institutions.

The Ministry of Communications (MOC) has experienced many incarnations with both changes of name and of state entities under its purview. The Ministry which was established in September 2015, was later joined to the Ministry of Public Administration in 2016, but in June 2018 was separated and is now known as the Ministry of Communications.2

The Ministry of Communications (MOC) has responsibility for Government Communications and Government Information. Within this context, the Ministry of Communications seeks to ensure that the citizens of Trinidad and Tobago know what the government is doing with their resources. The MOC is therefore charged with sharing information and keeping the population informed about the government and its Ministries achievements, their current and future plans and initiatives, as well as any type of decisions that might affect them as citizens of Trinidad and Tobago.

Specifically, the Ministry has direct responsibility for:

- Archives
- Centralised Government Communications
- Content Generation
- Data Protection
- Freedom of Information Monitoring
- Government Information
- Government Printery Services
- Issues Management/Crisis Communication
- National Library Services
- Rationalisation of Government Owned Media

Minister: Senator the Honourable Donna Cox

Permanent Secretary (Accounting Officer): Mrs. Nataki Atiba-Dilchan

Upgrade and outfitting of National Archives Facility which provides purpose built archival accommodation for the long-term preservation of the nation’s documentary heritage and the safe and effective use by staff and customers.

National Library and Information System Authority (NALIS)

NALIS continues to ensure business continuity by building its capacity internally, given the existing national shortage of qualified Librarians, which can adversely impact on the future effectiveness of its operations. In fiscal 2019, the sum of $1.1 million was expended on scholarships for 23 undergraduates pursuing Bachelor of Science and two (2) post graduates Master’s Degrees in Library Science.

A total of $6.3 million was expended on three (3) libraries as follows:

- completion of Phase I involving demolition and restoration works to the structural floors, roof and fence at the Heritage Library (former Trinidad Public Library);
- payment for site maintenance, security and insurance at the Chaguanas Library as a result of contractor termination since 2015, construction of the base building is approximately 68 percent completed; and

• payment of outstanding invoices at the Mayaro Library for which construction work is 90 percent completed, the library comprises a two (2) storey pre-engineered structure with car park, access ramps for the differently abled and specialised library and information areas.
Supplementation of Appropriation for the fiscal year 2019

During fiscal 2018/2019, it was necessary to have a Supplementation of Appropriation of resources to fund urgent and critical Recurrent Expenditure in areas where insufficient or no allocation was provided. The source of these additional funds was the Consolidated Fund.

The Ministry of Communications requested and was granted the following supplementation:

Recurrent Expenditure - $10,000,000
04/011/03 – Trinidad and Tobago Television Company Limited (TTT) - $10,000,000
The sum is required to meet operational expenses due to an increase in live broadcast productions.
