The Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Property (Amendment) Bill, 2020

Contents

BACKGROUND........................................................................................................................................2
KEY FEATURES OF THE BILL.............................................................................................................2
REFERENCES.........................................................................................................................................4

Date Introduced: 4 December, 2020
House: House of Representatives
Minister: Minister of Finance

Links: The links to the Bill and its progress can be found on the Bill’s home page through the Parliament’s website, www.ttparliament.org
BACKGROUND

1. The Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Property (Amendment) Bill, 2020, (hereinafter referred to as “the Bill”) will be introduced in the House of Representatives by the Honourable Colm Imbert, Minister of Finance on December 4, 2020.

2. The Bill seeks to amend the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Property Act, 2015¹ (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”).

3. The Act introduced a new regime for public procurement and the retention and disposal of public property, in accordance with the principles of good governance; namely accountability, transparency, integrity and value for money. The Act also established the Office of Procurement Regulator and repealed the Central Tenders Board Act, Chap. 71:91.

KEY FEATURES OF THE BILL

4. Clause 4 of the Bill amends Section 4 of the Act by deleting the existing definition for “bid rigging” and substituting it with the following new definition:

   “bid-rigging” means collusive price-fixing and anti-competitive behaviour designed to unfairly influence the outcome of a competitive tender process in favour of one or more bidders.”

5. Clause 5 of the Bill will amend Section 7 of the Act, which states that the Act applies to public bodies and public-private partnership arrangements.

6. Clause 5 amends Section 7 of the Act by:
   - Creating new subsection (5) which provides that the Act shall not apply to public bodies or State-controlled enterprises that provide:
     - legal services;
     - financial services;
     - accounting and auditing;
     - medical services; or
     - such other services as the Minister may, by Order, determine.

¹ http://www.ttparliament.org/legislations/a2015-01.pdf
Creating new subsection (6) which would subject an Order made under subsection (5) to the negative resolution of Parliament.²

7. Clause 6 seeks to amend Section 13(1) of the Act by deleting paragraph (o). This would mean that the Office of Procurement Regulator would no longer have the function of acting on behalf of the State to dispose of real property owned by the Government.

8. Clause 7 would amend Section 29 by deleting paragraph (c) which provides that a procuring entity shall ensure that suppliers and contractors and their directors or officers have not been convicted of any criminal offence.

9. This amendment would instead provide that a procuring entity shall ensure that suppliers and contractors and their directors or officers shall not have been convicted within the past ten (10) years of corruption or fraud related offences locally or internationally as individuals or as directors or officers of a company.

10. Clause 8 amends Section 50 (12) would change the time frame for the Office of Procurement Regulator to provide the reasons for its decisions and actions from twenty (20) working days to thirty (30) working days after the making a decision.

11. Clause 9 seeks to amend Section 59 by inserting subsection (1A) after subsection 1. Subsection (1A) provides that for the purposes of 59(1) that “relative” means a spouse, cohabitant within the meaning of the Cohabitational Relationships Act³, father, mother, brother, sister, son or daughter. The effect of this amendment is to include a “relative” as an associate in relation to conduct influencing a public officer, such as gaining an advantage or concession or influencing the decisions of a procuring entity.

12. Clause 10 will amend Section 66 of the Act to amend the effective dates of the operationalisation of the Act in relation to public officers. The amendment gives options to public officers for voluntary retirement, transfer or remaining in the Public Service.

---

² Negative Resolution means that the regulation shall be laid before the House and, within a prescribed period of time, may be annulled by a resolution of the House; Sir David Natzler and Mark Hutton, Erskine May’s Treatise on The Law, Privileges, Proceedings and Usage of Parliament (23rd edn, LexisNexis 2004), 677-678

³ A “cohabitant” is a man who is living or has lived with a woman that he is not married but is living with or has lived with as his wife on a bona fide domestic basis for no less than five years or have a child together; or a woman who is living with or has lived with a man that she is not married to but is living with or has lived with as her husband on a bona fide domestic basis for no less than five years or have a child together.
In subsection (1), by inserting the words “or on the coming into force of this Part” after the words “on the date of assent of this Act” so that the section will now state: “This section applies to an officer who, on the date of assent of this Act or on the coming into force of this Part”

In subsection (2) by:
- Deleting the word “Act” and substituting it with the word “Part”;
- In paragraph (a) by deleting the word “retire” and substituting it with the word “retirement”; and
- In paragraph (c) by deleting the word “remain” and substituting it with word “remaining”.

REFERENCES

KEY LEGISLATION
- Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Property Act, 2015

LEGISLATION MENTIONED
- Cohabitational Relationships Act, Chap 45:55

Legal Unit
Parliament Secretariat
Parliamentary Complex, Cabildo Building,
No. 23-27 St. Vincent Street, Port-of-Spain
December 3, 2020

Disclaimer: Bills Essentials are prepared to support the work of the Members of the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago and is not intended to address the specific circumstances of any particular individual. They are produced under time and resource constraints and aim to be available in time for debate in the Houses.

The views expressed in Bill Essentials do not reflect an official position of the Legal Unit, nor do they constitute professional legal advice. Bill Essentials reflect the relevant legislation as introduced and do not canvass subsequent amendments or developments.