

“The Rotunda Gallery”

A display of Trinidad and Tobago’s cultural and political heritage

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Artists & Collectors

The Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago is inviting submissions for “The Diamond Jubilee: A Parliamentary Story” in commemoration of the 60th Independence Day in Trinidad and Tobago. The exhibition will be held from 22nd August - 16th September, 2022.

The Vision

Trinidad and Tobago gained its independence from Great Britain on 31st August, 1962. At midnight on 30th August, 1962, at the Flag Raising Ceremony, the Union Jack (British flag) was lowered and the Trinidad and Tobago flag was raised for the first time and took place in the Abercromby Street Forecourt of the Red House. Bells tolled and sirens rang out to herald the birth of the newly-independent nation.

Throughout the 60 years of independence, the Parliament played a key role in the lives of citizens. The Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago consists of the President, the House of Representatives and the Senate. The official role of Parliament is to represent the people, make laws and oversee the executive. In the execution of their role, Parliamentarians have brought a Trinbagonian flavour, which created unique stories over the years. These stories contributed to the rich history and heritage of Trinidad and Tobago.

In commemoration of this day, the Rotunda Gallery at the Red House is inviting submissions from artists who are nationals of Trinidad and Tobago to submit works based on the sixty (60) years of Parliament through the eyes of an artist. Artists should depict Parliamentary elements within their work, reflect Parliamentary pride and highlight the last sixty years of significant points in our local parliamentary history.
