Act No. 11 of 2005

[L.S.]

AN ACT to amend the Offences Against the Person Act,
Chap. 11:08

[Assented to 23rd June, 2005]

ENACTED by the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago as Enactment follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Offences Against the Short title and Person (Amendment) (Harassment) Act, 2005, and shall commencement come into operation on such date as is fixed by the President by Proclamation.

Chap. 11:08
amended

2. The Offences Against the Person Act is amended by inserting after section 30 the following new sections:

“HARASSMENT

Harassment 30A. (1) For the purpose of this section—

(a) “harassment” of a person includes alarming the person or causing the person distress by engaging in a course of conduct such as—

- (i) following, making visual recordings of, stopping or accosting the person;
- (ii) watching, loitering near or hindering or preventing access to or from the person’s place of residence, workplace or any other place frequented by the person;
- (iii) entering property or interfering with property in the possession of the person;
- (iv) making contact with the person, whether by gesture, directly, verbally, by telephone, computer, post or in any other way;
- (v) giving offensive material to the person, or leaving it where it will be found by, given to, or brought to the attention of the person;

(vi) acting in any manner described in subparagraphs (i) to (v) towards someone with a familial or close personal relationship to the person; or

(vii) acting in any other way that could reasonably be expected to alarm or cause the person distress; and

(b) a “course of conduct” involves conduct of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) carried out on at least two occasions.

(2) A person who pursues a course of conduct which amounts to harassment of another and which he knows or ought reasonably to know amounts to harassment of the other is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

(3) A person who is charged with an offence under subsection (2) and whose course of conduct is in question is deemed to know that it amounts to harassment of another if a reasonable person in possession of the same information would think the course of conduct amounted to harassment of the other.

Putting a person in fear of violence

30B. (1) A person who is accused of conduct which would constitute an offence under section 30A and which causes the other person to fear that violence will be used against him, and the person whose course of conduct is in question knows or ought to know that his conduct will cause the other person so to fear, commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for five years or, on summary conviction, to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

(2) For the purpose of this section, the person whose course of conduct is in question is deemed to know that it will cause another person to fear that violence will be used against him if a reasonable person in possession of the same information would think the course of conduct would cause the other person so to fear.

(3) If on trial on indictment, a person charged with an offence under this section is found not guilty, the Court may find him guilty of an offence under section 30A.

Defence

30C. It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under section 30A or 30B to show that—

- (a) his course of conduct was pursued for the purpose of preventing or detecting crime;
- (b) his course of conduct was pursued under any written or unwritten law or to comply with any condition or requirement imposed under any written or unwritten law; or
- (c) in the particular circumstances, the pursuit of the course of conduct was reasonable.
