Second Session Tenth Parliament Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

SENATE

BILL

An Act to amend the Legal Aid and Advice Act,
Chap. 7:07

PRINTED BY THE GOVERNMENT PRINTER, PORT-OF-SPAIN
REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO—2011
THE LEGAL AID AND ADVICE (AMENDMENT)
BILL, 2011

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

This Bill seeks to amend the Legal Aid and Advice Act,
Chap 7:07.

Clause 1 of the Bill contains the short title.

Clause 2 contains the interpretation provision.

Clause 3 would amend section 3 of the Act to allow the inclusion in the Board of at least one Attorney-at-law from Tobago.

Clause 4 would amend section 4(3) by deleting the words “whose decision shall be final” in relation to a decision by a judge in adjudicating an appeal by an Attorney-at-law who was excluded from a panel prepared under section 4.

Clause 5 seeks to insert after section 4 a new section 4A that will, in addition to his existing duties, authorize the Director of Legal Aid to prepare and maintain panels of Attorneys-at-law who are willing to serve as Duty Counsel with the responsibility of providing legal representation for minors and persons who are detained on suspicion of having committed a capital offence, who are referred to as suspects.

Clause 6 would insert a new Part II A after section 15A which would provide for the procedure regarding legal representation by Duty Counsel for suspects.

Clause 7 seeks to amend section 17 which deals with applications for legal aid for the defence of persons before the High Court. Clause 7 would remove the time constraint of three months after committal for a person committed for trial to apply to the court for legal aid.

Clause 8 would amend section 23 to increase the quantum of the disposable capital and disposable income the parameters of which delimit the eligibility of an applicant for legal aid.
Clause 9 seeks to repeal section 24 and substitute a new section that would authorize the Director to approve an application for legal aid in extenuating circumstances where the applicant may not meet the necessary requirements.

Clause 10 seeks to amend section 25 to, inter alia, provide for the increase in the quantum of disposable income.

Clause 11 would amend section 26 to accord with the increase of the quantum of disposal income.

Clause 12 seeks to amend section 27(1) to remove the reference to section 24 which has been repealed.

Clause 13 seeks to amend section 29(1) to remove the reference to section 24 which has been repealed.

Clause 14 would amend section 31(1) to remove the reference to section 24 which has been repealed.

Clause 15 seeks to amend section 33(4) to increase the sum recovered above which an aided person will be required to pay costs.

Clause 16 would amend section 35(1) to remove the reference to section 24 which has been repealed.

Clause 17 seeks to amend section 37(1) to remove the period of six months residency required for a person to be eligible to receive legal advice in accordance with the Act. Clause 17 would also amend subsection (4) of section 37 to increase the fee that may be payable by a person seeking legal advice.

Clause 18 would amend section 39(1)(c) to remove the reference to section 24 which has been repealed.

Clause 19 seeks to amend section 40 to empower the Minister to make Regulations to govern the operation of the Duty Counsel scheme.

Clause 20 would amend the First Schedule to increase the quantum of fees and expenses to be paid to an Attorney-at-law assigned to a person in receipt of legal aid and advice under the Act.

Clause 21 seeks to amend the Second Schedule to add to proceedings for which legal aid may be given under the Act, proceedings before the Environmental Management Commission.
Clause 22 would amend the Third Schedule to include as Form 3 a Duty Counsel Certificate.

Clause 23 seeks to insert a Fourth Schedule by making provision for fees for Duty Counsel.

AN ACT to amend the Legal Aid and Advice Act,
Chap. 7:07

[ , 2011]

ENACTED by the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago as

1. This Act may be cited as the Legal Aid and Advice (Amendment) Act, 2011.
2. In this Act, “the Act” means the Legal Aid and Advice Act.

3. Section 3(2)(b) of the Act is amended by inserting after the words “Attorneys-at-law” the words “of whom at least one has a practice based in Tobago”.

4. Section 4(3) of the Act is amended by deleting the words “(whose decision shall be final)”.

5. The Act is amended by renumbering section 4A as 4B and inserting after section 4 the following section:

4A. (1) The Director shall prepare and maintain panels of Attorneys-at-law to be known as Duty Counsel who are willing to—

   (a) provide legal representation for a minor as soon as possible after the minor is detained on suspicion of having committed an offence; or

   (b) provide legal representation for persons detained on suspicion of having committed a capital offence.

   (2) Every Duty Counsel shall be entitled to have his name on the panels or any of them unless there is good reason for excluding him arising out of his conduct when acting or assigned to act for persons receiving legal representation or his professional conduct generally.

   (3) Where a Duty Counsel is aggrieved by any decision excluding him, whether permanently or temporarily, from the panels or any of them, he may appeal against the decision to a Judge and the Judge may confirm or quash the decision appealed against or may substitute such decision as he thinks fit.
(4) A Duty Counsel may, at any time, request the Director to remove his name from the panels or any of them and the Director shall comply with the request.”.

6. The Act is amended by inserting after section 15A, Part IIa inserted the following Part:

“PART IIA
LEGAL REPRESENTATION FOR SUSPECTS
BY DUTY COUNSEL

15B. (1) Where a suspect is detained, the senior officer in charge of the police station shall, as soon as possible inform the authority of—

(a) the name and age of the suspect where he is a minor;

(b) the nature of the offence; and

(c) the location where the suspect is being detained.

(2) Immediately upon being informed under subsection (1), the Director shall, without reference to the Court or the Authority, make arrangements for an Attorney-at-law referred to in section 4A ("the Duty Counsel") to provide legal representation for the suspect until such time as—

(a) the suspect, or his parent or guardian, with the leave of the Director, discharges the Duty Counsel;

(b) the Duty Counsel, with the leave of the Director, discontinues his services to the suspect;
(c) the suspect is released without being charged; or

(d) the suspect is charged with an offence and, where applicable, legal aid is granted to him under this Act.

(3) Where arrangements are made under subsection (2), the Director shall forthwith inform the police officer referred to in subsection (1) of the name of the Duty Counsel assigned to the suspect.

(4) As soon as practicable after making arrangements under subsection (2), the Director shall, without reference to the Court or the Authority, issue a Duty Counsel Certificate in the form set out as Form 3 in the Third Schedule.

(5) The Director shall establish and maintain a register of all Duty Counsel Certificates issued under subsection (4).

(6) The Director shall forward a copy of each Duty Counsel Certificate to the suspect, the Duty Counsel, the First Division Officer and to the Commissioner of Police.

(7) A Duty Counsel may commence the provision of legal representation for a suspect before the issuance of a Duty Counsel Certificate.

(8) A Duty Counsel Certificate shall remain in force until the occurrence of an event referred to in subsection (2)(a) to (d).

(9) A Duty Counsel shall notify the Director in writing of the date on which he ceased to provide legal representation for a suspect under this section and the Director shall endorse the date on the relevant Duty Counsel Certificate.

(10) A Duty Counsel shall not, without the leave of the Director, discontinue his provision of legal representation for a suspect while the relevant Duty Counsel Certificate is in force, but the Duty Counsel may be represented by any other Attorney-at-law.

(11) The fees payable to a Duty Counsel are those set out in the Fourth Schedule.

(12) In this section, “suspect” means a person required to be provided with legal representation under section 4A.”.

7. Section 17 of the Act is amended—

(a) in subsection (1), by deleting the words “within three months”; and
(b) by repealing subsection (2).
