AS AMENDED IN THE H.O.R.

No. 1 of 2014

Fourth Session Tenth Parliament Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

BILL

AN ACT to amend the Dog Control Act, 2013
The Dog Control (Amendment) Bill, 2014

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The Bill seeks to amend the Dog Control Act, 2013.

Clauses 1 to 3 would provide for preliminary matters.

Clause 4 would amend certain definitions in the Act, in particular the definition of a class A dog. The definition of a class A dog would be amended to mean a dog of the type listed in the Schedule or any dog which has the appearance and physical characteristics predominantly conforming to accepted breed standards of the Kennel Club, the American Kennel Club or the Canadian Kennel Club in respect of the listed class A dogs.

Clause 5 would amend section 5 of the Act to prohibit the entry of dogs in public places where there are prominently displayed notices prohibiting such entry. Assistance dogs and dogs used for security purposes would be exempted.

Clause 6 would amend section 7 of the Act to include the requirement that an owner of a class A dog must not have been convicted of a criminal offence that carries a term of imprisonment for one year or more. Subsection (13) would be amended to impose a duty on the owner of a class A dog to inform the local authority if the dog is lost. Subsection (18) would be repealed.

Clause 7 would amend section 8 of the Act to enable the local authority to give a seized class A dog to a person who is able to care for it or to an institution that receives stray dogs before exercising the option of destruction.

Clause 8 would amend section 9(3) of the Act.

Clause 9 would amend section 11 of the Act to provide insurance coverage to livestock and other animals where there have been attacks by a class A dog.

Clause 10 would make certain amendments to section 12 of the Act including an amendment to subsection (5) to enable the local authority to give a class A dog to a person who is able to care for it or to an institution that receives stray dogs before exercising the option of destruction.
Clause 11 would amend section 13 of the Act to enable a civil action to be brought by a guardian ad litem or on behalf of a person who is under a disability or is a minor.

Clause 12 would amend section 14 of the Act.

Clause 13 would amend section 15 of the Act.

Clause 14 would amend section 18 of the Act to provide for the owner of a class B dog that has been dangerously out of control on at least one occasion, to have a notice on the premises indicating that such a dog is present there.

Clause 15 would amend section 19 of the Act.

Clause 16 would amend section 20 of the Act to provide a defence for a person charged under that section where the other person was committing an offence against the person charged or his spouse, child or other person under his care.

Clause 17 would amend section 21 of the Act.

Clause 18 would amend section 22 of the Act to empower a constable or an officer of a local authority to seize or impound a dog which is in a public place or a place where it is not permitted to be.

Clause 19 would amend section 24 to exempt veterinary surgeons from liability under the Act where a class A dog is being kept for the purposes of medical treatment or compliance with the Act.

Clause 20 would amend the Act by inserting a new section 25A that would impose a fine of two hundred thousand dollars on a body corporate that commits an offence under the Act.

Clause 21 would amend section 28 to allow for the Regulations to prescribe penalties not exceeding fifty thousand dollars.

Clause 22 would repeal and substitute the existing Schedule.

AN ACT to amend the Dog Control Act, 2013

[ , 2014]

ENACTED by the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago as Enactment follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Dog Control (Amendment) Act, 2014.

2. This Act comes into operation on such date as is fixed by the President by Proclamation.

4. Section 4 of the Act is amended—
   (a) in subsection (1)—
      (i) by deleting the definition of “class A dog” and substituting the following definition:
         “class A dog” means—
         (a) a dog of the type listed in the Schedule or any dog bred therefrom; or
         (b) any dog which has the appearance and physical characteristics predominantly conforming to the standards of any of the types listed in the Schedule, as established by the Federation Cynologique Internationale, United Kennel Club, Canadian Kennel Club or the American Kennel Club as certified by a veterinary surgeon;”;
      (ii) in the definition of “local authority” by the deleting the word “Act” in the second place it appears; and
      (iii) in the definition of “Minister” by inserting after the word “assigned”, the words “and “Ministry” shall be construed accordingly”; and
   (b) in subsection (6), by deleting the words “without reasonable cause” wherever they occur.

5. Section 5 of the Act is amended—
   (a) by repealing subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection:
      “(1) No owner or keeper of a dog shall permit the dog to enter any public place at which notices are prominently displayed prohibiting entry to dogs, unless the dog—

(a) is an assistance dog;

(b) is being used for the purpose of securing the location; or

(c) is being used for a lawful purpose by a constable or a person in the service of the State.”;

(b) in subsection (2) (c) by inserting after the word “Order” the words “and documentary proof of such training is presented on request to any authorized representative of the owner or manager of the public place”; and

(c) in subsection (3)(c), by deleting the word “incite” and substituting the word “cause”.

5A. Section 6 of the Act is amended by repealing subsection (1) and substituting the following:

“(1) A person who owns a class A dog shall, within six months of the coming into force of this Act or within one month of becoming the owner of the dog, whichever is later, register the dog in the prescribed form with the local authority for the area where he resides.”.

6. Section 7 of the Act is amended—

(a) by repealing subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) A person who owns a class A dog shall, within six months of the coming into force of this Act or within one month of becoming the owner of the dog, whichever is later, apply for and obtain a licence in the prescribed form from the local authority for the area where he resides and the dog is kept.”;

(b) in subsection (2), by deleting the words “and shall include in the register the particulars of the policy of insurance required under section 11”;

(c) in subsection (5)—

(i) in paragraph (a) (iii) by inserting after the word “application” the words “and he has not been convicted of a criminal offence for which the penalty is a term of imprisonment of one year or more”; and

15. Section 19 of the Act is amended by repealing subsection (3) and substituting the following subsection:

“(3) Where a class A dog injures or kills a person or animal or causes the death of a person or animal while on, or outside private premises, the Court may order the seizure and destruction of that dog where the attack was unprovoked or was encouraged or incited by another person to attack the person or animal injured or killed thereby.”.

16. Section 20 of the Act is amended by repealing subsection (2) and substituting the following subsection:

“(2) It shall be a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to establish that—

(a) the other person was committing a criminal offence against the person charged;

(b) the other person was committing a criminal offence against the spouse, the child or any other person under the care of the person charged; or

(c) the person charged had reasonable cause to fear an attack on himself, his spouse, his child or any other person in his care.”.

17. Section 21 of the Act is amended—

(a) in subsection (1), by repealing paragraphs (c) and (d) and substituting the following paragraph:

“(c) where the dog is a class A dog—

(i) order the destruction of that dog by a veterinary surgeon, in a manner to cause as little pain as possible; and

(ii) order the offender to be disqualified from owning or keeping a class A dog for such period as the Court thinks fit.”; and

(b) in subsection (8), by inserting after the word “keeper” at the end of the subsection, the words “and make such other order as is provided for in section 21(1)(a) or (b)”.

18. The Act is amended by repealing section 22 and substituting the following section:

22.(1) A constable or officer of a local authority has the power to seize and cause to be impounded a dog which he has reason to believe is—

(a) in a public place in contravention of section 5; or

(b) on any premises without the consent of the owner or occupier of those premises.

(2) Where no one claims to be the owner or keeper of a dog within seven days of the seizing of the dog under subsection (1), the dog shall be deemed not to have an owner or keeper and the local authority may—

(a) give the dog to a person who will care properly for the dog;

(b) give the dog to an establishment for the reception of stray dogs; or

(c) cause the dog to be destroyed by a veterinary surgeon in a manner to cause as little pain as possible.”.
19. Section 24 of the Act is amended by repealing subsection (2) and substituting the following:

“ (2) Where a veterinary surgeon keeps a class A dog in a professional capacity for the purposes of—

(a) administering medical treatment to the dog; or

(b) compliance with this Act,

he is not required to hold a licence in accordance with this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where a veterinary surgeon boards a class A dog in his premises, he is required to secure those premises in the prescribed manner so as to prevent the escape of the dog.

(4) A veterinary surgeon who fails to comply with subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars.

(5) The owner of an establishment for the reception of stray dogs that keeps a class A dog is not required to hold a licence in accordance with this Act.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), the owner of an establishment for the reception of stray dogs that keeps a class A dog is required to secure those premises in the prescribed manner so as to prevent the escape of the dog.”.
