THE MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS (LOCAL GOVERNMENT REFORM) BILL, 2019

Explanatory Notes

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The Bill seeks to amend nine pieces of legislation and will contain eleven clauses.

Clause 1 of the Bill would contain the short title of the Act for which this is the Bill.

Clause 2 of the Bill would provide that the Act would come into operation on such date as is fixed by the President by Proclamation.

Clause 3 of the Bill would amend the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap 25:04 (the MCA). Paragraph (a) of the clause would amend section 2 of the MCA, which provides for the interpretation of certain words and phrases in the Act. The first definition to be amended is the definition of “Chief Executive Officer”, to delete the references to “City Clerk or Town Clerk” and replacing it with the term “Chief Executive Officer”. The clause would also amend the definition of “Commission” which only refers to the Statutory Authorities Service Commission. The use of the term throughout the Act necessitates that definition now also speaks to the Public Service Commission.

The clause would introduce the phrase “complex development” as the Municipal Corporations would be required to send applications for “complex developments” to the “Planning Authority”. In the definition of “corporate office”, references to “the Chairman” and “the Vice-Chairman” are being deleted. The paragraph provides for the introduction of the definition “local highway authority”, “Municipal Director of Finance”, “National Planning Authority” and “simple development”. The definition of “officer” is being amended to now recognise the new ability of the Corporations to employ their staff.

The clause at paragraph (b) would amend section 5 of the MCA to include the Borough of Chaguanas in the list of areas to which the Act applies.

The clause at paragraph (c) would amend section 11 in subsections (2) and (7) to correct the references to the “Elections and Boundaries Commission (Local Government and Tobago House of Assembly) Act”. The paragraph would also amend subsection (3) to vary the term of office of Councillors from three years to four years requiring that all Councillors would retire on the last day of every quadrennial. The clause goes on to remove the requirement for a Councillor to have his qualifying property situated in the electoral area but in an electoral district other than the electoral district for which he seeks to be a candidate, and would disqualify a person from being a Councillor where he has been convicted of an offence which carries a penalty of five years or more.

The clause at paragraph (d) goes on to amend section 12 of the MCA to vary the requirement for a person to be an Alderman by requiring an Alderman to be a person who qualifies to be a Councillor. Paragraph (d) would also repeal subsection (3) which provided that for Corporations other than Cities and Boroughs at least one Alderman be elected from persons who are members of a Village or Community Council within a Municipality. The paragraph would also provide that the term of office of an Alderman is also being varied from three years to four years.

Paragraph (e) of the clause would amend section 12A to repeal subsection (3) which provided that where, during the life of a Council, a person on the list of Aldermen of party becomes disqualified from serving or is unable to serve as an Alderman, the party could submit the name of a substitute Aldermen.

The clause at paragraph (f) would repeal section 17 of the MCA and substitute a new section 17 which would empower the Minister to determine the remuneration and allowances for the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors. The Act would also be amended to provide for the remuneration and allowances to be paid out of the fund of a corporation established under section 109.

The clause at paragraph (g) would repeal section 18 of the MCA which allows the President to make regulations for the purposes of section 17.

The clause at paragraph (h) goes on to amend section 21 of the MCA to first remove references to “honorarium” and replace it with the word “remuneration”. The clause would also allow a Deputy Mayor to act in the stead of a Mayor who dies, resigns, is removed or is disqualified, until a new Mayor is elected, rather than succeeding to the office of Mayor automatically. The clause would insert a new subsection (5) which would allow the Council to appoint an Alderman or Councillor to the office of Deputy Mayor where the Mayor is acting as Deputy Mayor and such a person would hold office until the date the Deputy Mayor ceases to act as a Mayor.

The clause at paragraph (i) would amend section 22 of the MCA by increasing the penalty from four thousand dollars to ten thousand dollars for a qualified person who is elected to corporate office and fails to accept the office by making and subscribing the required declaration within five days after notice of the election. The clause would also bar the qualified person from offering himself from any further municipal elections. The clause would also remove an exemption for a person over the age of sixty-five years who before the day of elections served in a corporate office, or paid a fine for non-acceptance of the office or who having served in a corporate office or different corporate officers for an aggregate period of six years who claims an exemption within five days after the notice of his election.

The clause at paragraph (j) would amend section 24(2) to insert the words “or Alderman” after the word “Councillor”.

The clause at paragraph (k) would amend section 25(3) of the MCA to require a copy of the notice of the vacancy of a corporate office to be sent not only to the Minister but also the Elections and Boundaries Commission.

The clause at paragraph (l) would amend section 27 of the MCA to provide for the office of an Alderman to be rendered vacant where the person so elected to the office ceases to possess the qualifications set out in section 11(6) or becomes disqualified for any of the reasons set out in section 11(8).

The clause at paragraph (m) would amend section 31 of the MCA to provide for a person committing the offence, rather than being guilty of the offence when they act in a corporate office without making a declaration of acceptance of office or without being qualified at the time of making the declaration or after becoming disqualified. The penalty for the offence is also being increased from four thousand dollars to ten thousand dollars. The clause would go on change the language in respect of the guilt of a person registered as an elector.

The clause at paragraph (n) would insert a number of new clauses. New section 33A would be inserted to provide for the corporation to have a Municipal Council and an Executive Council. Section 33B would list the roles and responsibilities of a Municipal Council. New section 33C would list the roles and responsibilities of the Executive Council. New section 33D would lay out the composition of the Executive Council Corporation. New section 33E would lay out the functions and duties of the Executive Council. New section 33F would provide for the powers of members of the Executive Council. New section 33G would provide for the Executive Council to be subject to the Ombudsman. New section 33H would require each Corporation to establish its organisational structure in accordance with the divisions established under section 35A. The Corporation may also seek the approval of the Minister with responsibility for local government for review of the organisational structure. New section 33I would empower the Municipal Corporations to exercise the powers given to local authorities under the Public Health Ordinance. This section would require officers of the Corporation in exercising the powers of a local authority to only enter private premises with the consent of the owner or occupier and during the hours of 8 am to 5 pm and only take any item with the consent of the owner or occupier. Where the owner or occupier refuses to consent to entry the Corporation is required to apply to the Court for a warrant to enter and seize and remove anything from the premises.

The clause at paragraph (o) would amend section 34 of the MCA to mandate that a Corporation have a staff of Chief Officers only as provided for in section 36 and officers and employees as are necessary for the efficient discharge of the functions of the Council. The clause would further insert a new subsection (2) which would give a Corporation the responsibility for employing persons as it considers necessary for the due performance of its functions, setting the qualifications, and discipline or dismiss its employees. The paragraph would also insert a new subsection (3) which would require the Chief Personnel Officer to set the terms and conditions of service for officers.

The clause at paragraph (p) would further insert new section 34A which provides for the pension rights and schemes for its employees and a new section 34F which would provide for the grievance procedures which are set out in the Twelfth Schedule.

The clause at paragraph (q) would amend section 35 to recognise the employment of persons by the Corporation.

The MCA would be further amended in paragraph (r) by inserting a new section 35A which would list the responsibilities for administrative divisions of a Corporation. The clause would also allow for two or more responsibilities under section (1) to be carried out by one Division of the Municipal Corporation. The paragraph would also insert a new section 35B which would provide for the responsibilities of the division with responsibility for corporate services, new section 35C which would provide for the responsibilities of the division with responsibility for finance, planning and allocation of resources, new section 35D which would set out the responsibilities of the division with responsibility for recreation ground and public spaces, new section 35E which would provide the responsibilities of the division with responsibility for public health, sanitation and the environment, new section 35F which would provide the responsibilities of the division with responsibility for spatial planning and building inspection, new section 35G which would provide the responsibilities of the division with responsibility for monitoring and evaluation, new section 35H which would provide the responsibilities of the division with responsibility for community development and social services and new section 35I which would provide the responsibilities of the division with responsibility for infrastructure development and maintenance.

The clause at paragraph (s) would amend section 36 of the MCA by deleting the words "Treasurer" and replacing it with the new nomenclature "Municipal Director of Finance" and by replacing the "Medical Officer of Health" with the "Municipal Director of Health" and providing for the Municipal Planning Director and the Municipal Social Services Director.

The clause at paragraph (t) would repeal section 37 which previously would have required the vacancy in office of a Chief Officer to be reported to the Commission and the requirement for it to be filled within three months and the failure to do so to be reported to the President by the Mayor. This repeal is to allow for the Corporations to employ the Chief Officers.

Paragraph (u) would insert new section 37A to provide for the functions of the Corporation.

(Section 34F)

DISPUTE AND GRIEVANCES PROCEDURES

Disputes and Grievances shall be handled in the following manner:

Step 1. The aggrieved employee with or without his Shop Steward shall take up the matter with the Supervisor (Foreman), within two working days. Thereafter the matter shall be heard within a period of not more than five working days and decision given within the time allocated. Either party shall have the right refer the matter to be dealt with under Step 2.

Step 2. If there is no settlement at Step 1, the employee and/or Union shall take up the matter with the Human Resource Manager or his nominee, within ten working days after the expiration date at Step 1, and the matter shall be heard within fifteen working days. A decision at this Step shall be in writing and shall be given to the aggrieved employee and, where applicable, the Union not later than two working days after the expiration of the fifteen working days allocated for the hearing of the grievance.

If the matter is not heard or the decision is not given within the time allocated either party shall have the right to refer the matter to be dealt with under Step 3.

- Step 3. If there is no settlement at Step 2, the matter shall be referred to the Chief Executive Officer within ten working days and shall be heard within six days of being so referred. A decision at this Step shall be given in writing to the aggrieved worker, and where applicable, the Union not later than seven working days after the expiration of the six weeks allocated for the hearing of the grievance.

If the matter is not heard or the decision is not given within the time allocated either party shall have the right to refer the matter to the Minister of Labour.

- Step 4. If there is no settlement at Step 3, the matter shall be referred to the Minister of Labour under the Industrial Relations Act, Chap. 88:01 or the Ministry of Labour for conciliation.

DISCIPLINARY CODE

1.1 Discipline:

1. In all cases of disciplinary action, the employee concerned or, where applicable the Union, may exercise the right of appeal under the Grievance Procedure.
2. In the case of dismissal, the aggrieved employee or Union shall commence representation at Step 4.

1.2. Reinstatement:

Where a worker had been exonerated at a hearing or as a result of subsequent representation, he shall be reinstated without loss of full pay.

2.0. Disciplinary Code:

- 2.1 A warning notice may be given to the employee by his supervisor. Such notice shall be in writing and shall state clearly and precisely the nature of the offence. A copy of the notice shall be given to the employee's Shop Steward or the Union.

2.2 Provided that within a period of six months from the date of issue of the said notice the employee has not been the subject of disciplinary action resulting from a charge proven against him, such notice shall cease to have effect and shall thereupon be removed immediately from the official records of the worker.

2.3 Where an offence is alleged to have been committed and disciplinary action is contemplated against a worker, prior to instituting an inquiry into the matter, the Employer shall notify the employee in writing of the charge and shall state clearly and precisely the breach complained of and shall also advise the worker of the time and place of the inquiry and name of the Officer by whom, it is to be heard. At such time the employee shall be entitled to be represented by his Shop Steward and/or other Union Officials and to call witnesses on his behalf.

2.4 The employer shall not arbitrarily dismiss or discipline an employee (Warning excluded) prior to the completion of the process at 2.3.

2.5 The charged employee shall be informed, in writing, of the decision and a copy of such decision shall be given to the Union. Decision resulting in dismissal shall state clearly and precisely the offence necessitating such dismissal.

2.6 Where a worker has been exonerated at a hearing or as a result of subsequent representation he shall be reinstated without loss of pay.

2.7 A Supervisory officer may suspend a worker pending the hearing of a charge in cases where the circumstances or nature of the offence warrants it, but suspension as a form of punishment arising from disciplinary action shall not be exercised by officers lower in rank than that of a Head of Division or officer of equal status.

2.8 In the case of a permanent worker such a suspension shall be on half-pay.

2.9 Dismissal as a form of punishment shall not be exercised by an officer of lower rank than that of Head of Division or officer of equal status.

2.10 Dismissal shall be in writing, stating clearly and precisely the offences necessitating such dismissal.

2.11 In all cases of disciplinary action, the aggrieved employee and/or the Union shall have the right of appeal under the Grievance Procedure.
