SENATE

BILL

AN ACT to amend the Firearms Act, Chap. 16:01
The purpose of this Act is to incorporate provisions within the Firearms Act, Chap. 16:01, to regulate the use and possession of pepper spray in Trinidad and Tobago, including, inter alia, its manufacture, importation, distribution and sale.

Clause 1 of the Bill would cite the short title of the Act.

Clause 2 of the Bill would define “the Act” to mean the Firearms Act, Chap. 16:01.

Clause 3 of the Bill would amend the definitions of “ammunition” and “firearm” in section 2 of the Act, and would also insert new definitions of “pepper spray”, “Pepper Spray Import Permit” and “Pepper Spray Permit”.

Clause 4 of the Bill would delete the heading of Part I in the Act and substitute a new heading.

Clause 5 of the Bill would amend section 5(2) of the Act to include new section cross-references and to include the words “pepper spray” in all the paragraphs of the section.

Clause 6 of the Bill would amend section 6 of the Act by inserting a new subsection (2A). This new subsection would allow Estate Police, Special Reserve Officers, Municipal Police Officers and such other person as approved by the Minister to have in their possession pepper spray when performing their functions.

Clause 7 of the Bill would insert new sections 6A, 6B and 6C after section 6 of the Act. The new section 6A would allow the Minister, by Order, to approve the volumetrical contents and types of pepper spray. The section would also allow a person to apply to the Commissioner of Police for a Pepper Spray Import Permit to import, export, divert, sell, manufacture, produce, distribute, pepper spray or a Pepper Spray Permit to purchase, acquire or have in his possession pepper spray.
The new section 6B would provide for the renewal of a Pepper Spray Import Permit and a Pepper Spray Permit whereas the new section 6C would make the giving of any false statement or information during the process of applying for a Pepper Spray Import Permit or Pepper Spray Permit, a criminal offence punishable with a fine and imprisonment on summary conviction or on conviction on indictment.

Clause 8 of the Bill would amend section 8 of the Act by deleting the word “President” and substituting the word “Minister”.

Clause 9 of the Bill would amend the Act by inserting after section 9A, a new section 9B. This new section would make it an offence for a person to sell or transfer pepper spray if that person does not hold or is not exempted from holding a Pepper Spray Import Permit or a Pepper Spray Permit.

Clause 10 of the Bill would insert a new section 16B and 16C after section 16A.

The new section 16B would prohibit persons who are charged or convicted of serious criminal offences as specified in Schedule II of the Act, Part II of the Bail Act and the Domestic Violence Act from obtaining a Pepper Spray Import Permit or Pepper Spray Permit. Any person in this prohibited class who is found with pepper spray in their possession may potentially be sanctioned, if convicted, with a significantly heftier fine and imprisonment.

The new section 16C, would compel a person, being a holder of a Pepper Spray Import Permit or a Pepper Spray Permit, to return the permit if he is charged or convicted with any offence as specified in section 16B(1) or (2) of the Act.

Clause 11 of the Bill would, in substance, amend section 17 of the Act by inserting a new subsection (4A). This new section would require the Commissioner of Police or such police officer authorised by the Commissioner to issue a Pepper Spray Import Permit or a Pepper Spray Permit only if they are satisfied that the applicant has good reason for wanting to be issued with the particular Permit. Under this section, the Commissioner or the authorised police officer, may, among other considerations, refuse to issue a permit if they have reason to believe that the applicant has intemperate habits or is of unsound mind.
Clause 12 of the Bill would amend the Act by inserting a new section 17A, after section 17. This new section would allow for the issuance of a Pepper Spray Import Permit or a Pepper Spray Permit to any person who is eighteen years of age or in the case of a child sixteen years of age and over, with the permission of the parent, guardian etc. of the particular child, notwithstanding the current age restriction of twenty-five years imposed under section 17(2A).

Clause 13 of the Bill would make consequential amendments to section 21 of the Act to provide, among other minor adjustments, for the inclusion of Pepper Spray Import Permit and Pepper Spray Permit.

Clause 14 of the Bill would amend section 21A of the Act to include a new section 17A cross-reference.

Clause 15 of the Bill would amend the Act by repealing section 21C and replacing it with a new section 21C. This new section would require the Commissioner of Police, in addition to establishing a Trinidad and Tobago Firearms Register, to also establish a Trinidad and Tobago Pepper Spray Register in which would be kept such matters as may be prescribed.

Clause 16 of the Bill would make consequential amendments to section 22 of the Act to provide for the inclusion of the words “pepper spray”.

Clause 17 of the Bill would amend section 22A(1) of the Act to include a new section 17A cross-reference.

Clause 18 of the Bill would amend section 23 of the Act by repealing subsection (1) and substituting a new subsection (1). This new subsection would make provision for the inclusion in the operation of this subsection, Pepper Spray Import Permit and Pepper Spray Permit.

Clause 19 of the Bill would amend section 25 of the Act by repealing subsection (1) and substituting a new subsection (1). This new subsection would make provision for the inclusion in the operation of this subsection, Pepper Spray Import Permit and Pepper Spray Permit.

Clause 20 of the Bill would make consequential amendments to section 26(7) of the Act to provide for the inclusion of the words “Pepper Spray Import Permit and Pepper Spray Permit”.

Clause 21 of the Bill would amend section 27 of the Act by repealing subsection (1) and substituting a new subsection (1). This new subsection would make provision for the inclusion in the operation of this subsection, Pepper Spray Import Permit and Pepper Spray Permit.
Clause 21 of the Bill would, essentially, make sweeping consequential amendments to section 27 of the Act to include as part of the operation of that provision, Pepper Spray Import Permit, Pepper Spray Permit and pepper spray.

Clause 22 of the Bill would renumber section 36 as 36(1) to expressly allow the Minister to make regulations that are subject to negative resolution of Parliament. A new subsection (2) would also be inserted that would specifically allow, inter alia, the Minister to make regulations regarding the manufacture, production, importation, exportation, diversion, receipt, sale, disposal, and distribution of pepper spray and for the records to be kept by a person in connection with the manufacture, production, importation, exportation, diversion, receipt, sale, disposal, and distribution of pepper spray.

Clause 23 of the Bill would make consequential amendments to section 37 of the Act to provide for the inclusion of the words “Pepper Spray Import Permit and Pepper Spray Permit”.

Clause 25 of the Bill would amend section 39(1) of the Act by deleting the word “President” and substituting the word “Minister”.

Clause 26 of the Bill would amend the Act by inserting after section 40, a new section 40A. This new section 40A would provide for the custody of pepper spray when found or otherwise comes into the possession of any person who previously was not the owner of the pepper spray. The provision would also impose an obligation on persons who hold a Pepper Spray Permit, to ensure that the pepper spray is safely stored out of the reach of children.

Clause 27 of the Bill would insert a new Schedule II and renumber the previous Schedule as Schedule I in the Act. The new Schedule II would expand the category of serious criminal offences that would prohibit a person form obtaining a Pepper Spray Import or a Pepper Spray Permit to include certain offences under the Offences Against the Person Act, the Larceny Act, the Kidnapping Act, the Trafficking in Persons Act, the Children Act and the Trespass Act.
Clause 28 of the Bill would amend the Firearms Regulations made under the Act by inserting after regulation 17, new regulations 17A through 17D. These new regulations would, among other things, provide for the process which a person would be required to follow when applying for a Pepper Spray Import Permit or a Pepper Spray Permit. The new regulations would also provide for the duration of a Pepper Spray Import Permit and a Pepper Spray Permit, a lost or stolen Pepper Spray Permit, and the standard of record-keeping and record-maintenance required of persons involved in the importation of pepper spray.

Clause 29 of the Bill would amend the Third Schedule of the Firearms Regulations by inserting new items 15 and 16. These new items would provide for the fees required to be paid when applying for a Pepper Spray Import Permit or a Pepper Spray Permit.

Clause 30 of the Bill would provide for a transitional provision. This transitional provision would allow all persons who have pepper spray in their possession, a grace period of six months from the date of commencement of the Act, to tender the appropriate application to the Commissioner of Police or the police officer authorised by him, for a Pepper Spray Permit. The provision would also allow the Minister to extend, by Order, the period allowed for a person to tender the necessary application for a Pepper Spray Permit.

Clause 31 of the Bill would make consequential amendments to various pieces of legislation to the extent specified in the Schedule. The pieces of legislation that would be amended to include the words “pepper spray” are the Offences Against the Persons Act, Chap. 11:08, the Dangerous Drugs Act, Chap. 11:25, the Domestic Violence Act, Chap. 45:56 and the Miscellaneous Previsions (Law Enforcement Officers) Act, 2019.
