Motions:

1. WHEREAS the Police Service Commission, as established under the Constitution, is appointed under the hand of His Excellency the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago in consultation with the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition;

AND WHEREAS the functions of the Police Service Commission are expressly set out in the Constitution of Trinidad and Tobago;

AND WHEREAS the former Chairman of the Police Service Commission has so conducted himself in such a manner that his statements have had the effect of bringing the Police Service Commission into odium and disarray; demoralized the Police Service and created great public controversy and disquiet;

AND WHEREAS there is currently widespread public condemnation of the reckless and divisive statements of the former Chairman of the Police Service Commission;

BE IT RESOLVED that this Honourable House condemn the reckless and divisive statements of the former Chairman of the Police Service Commission;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Honourable House reaffirm its collective commitment to the principles of fairness and meritocracy in public affairs.

(By the Leader of the Opposition)

2. The debate on the following Motion which was in progress when the House adjourned on Friday March 25, 2011 will be resumed:

WHEREAS Dr. Eric Eustace Williams, renowned academic, scholar, author, intellectual, politician, visionary, regional integrationist, humanitarian and longest serving Prime Minister of Trinidad and Tobago, is widely regarded as the “Father of the Nation”;

AND WHEREAS September 2011 will mark 100 years since his birth in Trinidad and Tobago on September 24, 1911:

BE IT RESOLVED that the Government of Trinidad and Tobago in collaboration with the widest national and regional participation take tangible steps to mark the centenary of the birth of Dr. Eric Eustace Williams, in recognition of his outstanding contribution to all the people of Trinidad and Tobago and the region:

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Honourable House direct the Minister of Education to declare 2011 “Dr. Eric Williams’ Year” and take all the necessary steps to ensure that the work and life history of Dr. Eric Eustace Williams feature prominently as part of the National School Curriculum at all levels of the education system during 2011 and beyond.

(By the Leader of the Opposition)

3. The debate on the following Motion which was adjourned on Friday February 25, 2011 will be resumed:

WHEREAS Parliament was advised that a component of the national security system (SIA) has for years been operating without the requisite legal authorization and may have violated the constitutional rights of citizens as it collected information of an unspecified nature;

AND WHEREAS Parliament has acted swiftly to rectify the situation in the interest of national security and the recognition of citizen's rights to unwarranted intrusion into their private affairs;

AND WHEREAS the Government has failed to treat responsibly with the body of information accumulated by the SIA:

BE IT RESOLVED that this Honorable House condemn the action of the Government:

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Government report immediately to Parliament on how it has handled, and is handling the SIA files/data so as to give citizens the assurance that the SIA's actions no longer pose a threat to their interest or that of national security.

(By the Leader of the Opposition)

4. WHEREAS Pension funds are critical to the long term saving rate of a country and for the safety and security of each individual citizen's future;

AND WHEREAS the savings of individuals are a critical component in the growth and stability of the economy and the related financial system;

AND WHEREAS a critical part of an individual savings for his later years is his contribution to a long term pension fund;

AND WHEREAS the average length of time spent by any individual in any one organization has shortened considerably;

AND WHEREAS pension plans are currently designed to reward employees who remain with one organization for a considerable period of time;

AND WHEREAS there is no system for pension portability either in the public or private sector in Trinidad and Tobago;

AND WHEREAS the lack of pension portability is a constraint on the free movement of labour resources and the ability of the working citizen to pursue alternative employment opportunity without a substantial loss of pension benefits:

BE IT RESOLVED that the government moves expeditiously to enact legislation to effect the portability of vested pension entitlements for both private and public sector employees.
