REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO
Act No. 11 of 2011

[L.S.]

AN ACT to amend the Bail Act, Chap. 4:60

[Assented to 23rd May, 2011]

WHEREAS it is enacted by section 13(1) of the <sup>Preamble</sup> Constitution that an Act of Parliament to which that section applies may expressly declare that it shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution and, if any Act does so declare, it shall have effect accordingly:

And whereas it is provided in section 13(2) of the Constitution that an Act of Parliament to which that section applies is one the Bill for which has been passed by both Houses of Parliament and at the final vote thereon in each House has been supported by the votes of not less than three-fifths of all the members of that House:

And whereas it is necessary and expedient that the provisions of this Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution:

Enactment            ENACTED by the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago as follows:

Short title            1. This Act may be cited as the Bail (Amendment) Act, 2011.

Commencement        2. This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the President by Proclamation.

Act inconsistent with Constitution        3. This Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution.

Interpretation
Chap. 4:60            4. In this Act, “the Act” means the Bail Act.

Section 3 amended    5. Section 3 of the Act is amended in subsection (1), by inserting after the definition of the word “Court” the following definitions:

Act No. 10 of 2011        “ “gang” has the meaning assigned to it in section 4 of the Anti-Gang Act;

“gang member” has the meaning assigned to it in section 4 of the Anti-Gang Act;

“gang-related activity” has the meaning assigned to it in section 4 of the Anti-Gang Act;”.

6. Section 5 of the Act is amended by inserting after Section 5 amended subsection (5) the following subsections:

“ (6) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), a Court shall not grant bail to a person who is—

(a) over the age of eighteen years; and

(b) charged with an offence under the Anti-Gang Act.

Act No. 10 of 2011

(7) Subject to subsection (8), where a person is charged with an offence mentioned in subsection (6) and brought before the Court but no evidence has been taken within one hundred and twenty days of the reading of the charge, that person is entitled to make an application to a Judge for bail.

(8) Where a person—

(a) is charged under section 10(1) of the Anti-Gang Act with harbouring a person who is a child; and

(b) is the parent or person acting in loco parentis of the child, and is brought before the Court but no evidence has been taken within sixty days of the reading of the charge, that person is entitled to make an application to a Judge for bail.

(9) A Court shall not grant bail to a person who is charged with an offence listed in paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of Part III of the First Schedule if the offence involves the use of a firearm or in paragraph (e) of Part III of the First Schedule and who has, in relation to the offences listed in Part II or Part III of the First Schedule, been convicted of at least one such offence within ten years of having served a sentence for one of those offences, whether the conviction was for an offence arising out of separate transactions or a combination of offences arising out of a single transaction.

(10) Notwithstanding subsection (9), where a person is charged with an offence mentioned in subsection (9) and brought before the Court but no evidence has been taken within one hundred and twenty days of the reading of the charge that person is entitled to make an application to a Judge for bail.”.
