THE GAMBLING AND BETTING (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1999

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The object of this Bill is to establish a National Tote System for the purpose of regulating betting on local and foreign horse and dog races. The Tote System will be operated exclusively by the National Racing Commission to be established upon the expected enactment of the National Racing Commission Bill, 1999.

Clause one would provide the short title and commencement to the Bill.

Clause two would define “the Act”.

Clauses three, four, six, seven, nine and ten would amend the Act in effect to exclude Turf Clubs from the horse racing industry.

Clause eight would repeal section 34A of the Act which establishes the National Tote System.

Clause eleven would introduce a new Part 11A of the Act to establish the new National Tote System to be operated by the National Racing Commission for the purpose of regulating betting business conducted by the Commission and its agents on local and foreign horse and dog races. Part 11A would introduce sections 40A to 40G.

The proposed section 40A would establish the National Tote System to be operated by the National Racing Commission.

By the proposed section 40B, the provisions of the Third Schedule to the Act shall apply for the purpose of regulating the conduct of pool betting on local or foreign horse and dog racing under the National Tote System.

By section 40c—

- (a) a tax of ten per cent shall be charged on all bets placed with the National Tote System and shall be payable by the National Racing Commission to the Board of Inland Revenue; and
- (b) where the owner or operator of a betting outlet fails to pay the ten per cent tax to the Commission, the Betting Levy Board may refuse to renew his permit.

Section 40D would provide that every operator of a betting outlet shall deposit with the Commission a non-refundable deposit of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

By sections 40D and E, every owner of a betting outlet would be required to deposit with the Commission a deposit of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars as a guarantee in respect of the betting business. The Commission is required to pay all such deposits to the Betting Levy Board.

Section 40F would confer on the Minister the power to make regulations for carrying out the provisions of Part 11A including inter alia, the conditions to be observed by agents appointed by the National Racing Commission, the collection of bets and paying out of dividends and the rights, obligations and liabilities of such agents. The Commission is also empowered to make Regulations for the management of betting outlets subject to the approval of the Board and the Minister.

Section 40G would provide that, except as otherwise provided in Part 11A and section 38 of the Act, no other provision of the Act shall apply in respect of betting business conducted by the National Racing Commission and its agents.

Clauses 12 and 13 would amend sections 45 and 46 of the Act.

Clause fourteen of the Bill would amend the First Schedule, in clause 17(2), in order to increase the licence fees in respect of "betting office licences" [as defined in section 26(1)(a) of the Act] from one hundred thousand dollars to one million dollars, in the case of licenced betting offices located within the city of Port-of-Spain, and to five hundred thousand dollars in the case of all other licenced betting offices.

Clause 15 of the Bill would amend clause 9 of the Fourth Schedule by deleting a reference to the "Betting Levy Board" and substituting the words "Board of Inland Revenue".
