THE NATIONAL INSURANCE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1999

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

Clause 1 would give the title of the Bill.

Clause 2 would provide the date of commencement of the Bill.

Clause 3(a) would define certain terms used in the Act and clause 3(b) would insert a new paragraph (aa) which enables the Executive Director to treat a single woman or single man as the wife or husband of the insured, as the case may be, if they have cohabited for a minimum period of three years even if no nomination had been made.

Clause 4 would create a body corporate by the title "The National Insurance Board of Trinidad and Tobago" and make consequential amendments.

Clause 5 would insert a new section 4A to exempt members of the Board from being sued for acts done bone fide in pursuance of the Act.

Clause 6 would amend section 13 to specify the particulars that should be included in the annual report of the Board.

Clause 7 would amend section 14 to enable the Executive Director to receive such salary and allowance as may be determined by the Board subject to the approval of the Minister.

Clause 8 would amend section 22 to provide for writing off of losses and the removal of the restriction for the use of an amount not exceeding nine and one half per cent of the revenue of the Board for payment of benefits and meeting administrative expenditure. The amendment would also empower the Minister to fix the amount consistent with the recommendation of the actuary.

Clause 9 would amend section 24 to provide for the Chairman of the Board to be Chairman of the Investment Committee and empower the Committee to regulate its own procedure subject to certain restrictions.

Clause 10 would provide for the treatment of persons who earn less than eighty dollars a week as employed persons within the meaning of the National Insurance Act.

Clause 11 would compel an employer to register as an employer within fourteen days of employing his first employee. The employer should register his employees if they do not provide their National Insurance Registration Numbers within fourteen days of employment. The amendment would make it obligatory for an employee to furnish his employer with the required personal particulars within seven days of employment if he had not already been registered at the instance of his employer. The employer and the employee who fail to comply with the requirement of this section are liable on summary conviction to fines. Domestic Workers and Casual Workers are exempt from the requirements of this section but are required to make application for registration.

Clause 12 would insert a new section 30A which provides for the use of a National Insurance Registration Card upon registration.

Clause 13 would amend section 32 to empower the authorised officers to have access to computers in business places in connection with records relating to employees and their remuneration as may be relevant to the National Insurance System.

Clause 14 would insert a new section 32A to provide for furnishing of data between the National Insurance Board and any governmental department, statutory body or agency.

Clause 15 would amend section 36(1) to enlarge the scope of the compulsory national insurance system.

Clause 16 would insert a new section 38A and make it obligatory for an employer to issue his employee on termination of his employment, a certificate containing particulars of his total insurable wages, contributions deducted from his wages, contributions paid to the Board and the number of contribution weeks covered.

Clause 17 would insert:

- (a) a new section 39A to provide that the amount of money deducted from the salary or wages of employees to be kept separately by the employer in trust for the Board;
- (b) a new section 39B to provide for the charging of an interest and penalty on amounts due from employers to the Board.

Clause 18 would insert a new section 45A which provides for garnishment of the assets of errant employers.

Clause 19 would amend section 46 to provide for the grant of maternity grant and introduce a new basis for the payment of invalidity benefit and survivors benefits.

Clause 20 would insert a new section 49A to provide for the recovery of the excess paid to any person under this Act from any other benefits to which that person would become entitled.

Clause 21 would amend section 54 to replace new tables for the existing tables.

Clause 22 would insert a new section 54A to provide for—

- (a) increase in sickness and maternity benefits as set out in Table A2 in the Third Schedule;
- (b) determination of average rates of contribution by using Table B and Table C;
- (c) increase of retirement, invalidity or survivor benefit from 3rd May, 1999 in accordance with Tables B2(A) and C2(A) for persons who qualified for such benefits before 11th August, 1980;
- (d) increase of retirement, invalidity or survivor benefit from 3rd May, 1999 in accordance with Tables B2(B) and C2(B) to persons who qualified for such benefits after 11th August, 1980 and who continue to be eligible to receive such benefits; and
- (e) increase of injury or death benefit from 3rd May, 1999 in accordance with Table D2 to persons who qualified to such benefits before 3rd May, 1999 and continue to be eligible to receive such benefits.

Clause 23 would amend section 57 to empower the President to make regulations to harmonise existing pension fund plans with the system of national insurance.

Clause 24 would substitute the word “Board” for the words “Executive Director” so that the Board would be empowered to recover by means of civil proceedings debt due to the Board.

Clause 25 would amend section 65 which provides for recovery of contributions by prosecution and the amendment is consequential since interest and penalties are to be imposed where there is a failure on the part of the employers to pay the contributions on the due date as provided for in clause 17.

Clause 26 would insert a new section 65A to provide for the liability of Directors and Managers for default on the part of the Corporation to pay the debt.

Clause 27 would amend section 66(1) to include the words “including sums due and payable as National Insurance Contributions” so that contributions remaining unpaid could also be recovered by the Board as a civil debt.

Clause 28 would amend section 71 to increase the penalty that could be imposed by regulations for the contravention of any regulations.

Clause 29 would redesignate the office of “Financial Comptroller” as “Chief Financial Officer”.

Clause 30 would insert Tables B and C.

Clause 31 would insert new sections 73 and 74. The new section 73 would provide for proceedings commenced by the Executive Director to be completed by the Board and the new section 74 would provide that the Act bind the State.

Clause 32 would give retrospective effect to section 4(a).

- (b) not be subject to attachment in respect to any debt or liability of the employer; and
- (c) form no part of the assets of the employer in the event of liquidation, assignment or bankruptcy of the employer or his business.

Interest

39B. Where any employer fails to pay the amount of contributions payable by him to the Board under the provisions of this Act by the fifteenth day after the due date, he shall be liable to pay—

- (a) a penalty of twenty five per cent of the outstanding sum; and
- (b) interest on the entire sum (penalty and outstanding sum) at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum from the sixteenth day of the following month until payment.

Section 45A inserted

19. The Act is amended by inserting after section 45 the following section:

"Garnish-

45A. (1) Where the Board believes that any person is indebted to or liable to make a payment to another person and that other person is indebted to the Board for unpaid National Insurance Contributions under this Act, the Executive Director may deliver to the first-mentioned person a demand for payment stating—

- (a) the name of the person indebted to the Board;
- (b) the amount of the debt due to the Board including the rate of interest thereon; and
- (c) where the first-mentioned person is the employer of the person indebted to the Board, the amount demanded for each pay period, being an amount not exceeding one-third of the sum payable to the employee during that period, expressed either as a dollar amount or a percentage of remuneration.

(2) Every person who receives a demand for payment under subsection (1) relating to one of his employees shall pay to the Board at the same time as he would pay that employee the amount demanded by the Executive Director or the amount of the employee's indebtedness to the Board whichever is the lesser, and shall continue to do so on each occasion that the employee is entitled to be paid until the employee's indebtedness to the Board is satisfied.

(3) Every person who receives a demand for payment under subsection (1) relating to some person other than one of his employees shall, if he is indebted to or liable to make a payment to that other person, pay to the Board the amount of his indebtedness or the amount which he is liable to pay to that person or the amount of that person's indebtedness to the Board whichever is the lesser.

(4) Every person who has discharged any liability to a person indebted to the Board under this Act after receiving a demand for payment under subsection (1) without complying with subsection (2) or (3) is liable to pay to the Board an amount equal to the liability discharged or which he was required under subsection (2) or (3) to pay to the Board whichever is the lesser.

(5) The payment of an amount to the Board under subsection (2) or (3) operates as a discharge of any liability of the person making the payment to the person to whom the payment would have been paid, to the extent of the amount paid to the Board.

(6) This section shall have effect notwithstanding the Truck Act.”.

Chap. 88:07
