THE POLICE SERVICE BILL, 2005

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The main purpose of this Bill is to provide the legal structure to ensure a modern Police Service by consolidating, amending and revising the law relating to the Police Service. The Bill will also provide for the classification of the Police Service, the appointment, promotion, transfer, dismissal and discipline of police officers, and generally provide for matters concerning the relationship between the State and the Police Service. The Bill also seeks to introduce new management structures of the Police Service in order to deal with modern realities. The Bill requires a simple majority vote and is divided into nine Parts.

Part I of the Bill provides for preliminary matters.

Clause 1 provides the short title of the Act, for which this is the Bill.

Clause 2 provides the commencement provision.

Clause 3 provides the interpretation provision.

Part II provides for the establishment and structure of the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service.

Clause 4 provides for the establishment of the Police Service.

Clause 5 provides the President with the power to issue arms to the Police Service.

Clause 6 provides for the classification of officers in the Police Service as set out in the Third Schedule.

Clause 7 provides that the Police Service shall consist of a First and Second Division as set out in the First and Second Schedules respectively.

Clause 8 provides the President with the power to deal with certain matters, such as remuneration, agreements or awards, governing the Police Service.

Clause 9 provides for increments to be paid annually.

PART IV

APPOINTMENT AND PROMOTION OF POLICE OFFICERS

Appointment and promotion to First and Second Division

16. (1) In the exercise of the powers vested in it by section 123(1) of the Constitution, the Authority shall take into account the recommendations of the Commissioner when it makes an appointment or a promotion.

(2) In the exercise of the powers vested in him by section 123A(2) of the Constitution, the Commissioner shall take into account the recommendations of the Promotion Advisory Board when he makes a promotion.

The Promotion
Advisory Board

17. (1) There is established a Promotion Advisory Board which shall comprise three members as follows:

- (a) the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Administration, who shall be the Chairman;
- (b) a senior officer, who is not a police officer, from the Ministry of National Security, selected by the Minister; and
- (c) an independent management consultant, appointed by the Commissioner.

(2) The Commissioner shall engage a person who is not a police officer as Secretary to the Board.

(3) The appropriate recognized association may nominate a representative to be present as an observer at sittings of the Board.

(4) The Board shall sit as often as it thinks necessary, but at least twice per year, to consider promotions.

Functions of the Board

18. (1) The Board shall make recommendations to the Commissioner in relation to his functions under section 123A(2) of the Constitution.

(2) The Commissioner may discuss with the Board any recommendation made under subsection (1).

19. (1) In considering a police officer's suitability for promotion, the Board shall conduct an interview taking into account the criteria prescribed.

(2) To be eligible for promotion a police officer of the rank of—

(a) Corporal to Assistant Superintendent is required to pass a qualifying examination; or

(b) Superintendent and above is required to—

(i) complete successfully an appropriate course of training; or

(ii) submit to the Commissioner the Diploma of the Joint Services Staff College, a relevant degree from an approved university, or a relevant professional qualification.

(3) In considering a police officer's suitability for promotion, the Authority shall take into account the criteria prescribed.

20. (1) At the conclusion of each sitting of the Board, the Chairman shall submit the Board's recommendations to the Commissioner in the form of an Order of Merit List.

(2) The Secretary to the Board shall keep a record of the ratings given to every police officer who appears before the Board.

(3) A police officer is entitled to apply to the Board to be informed in writing of his ratings.

21. (1) A police officer on first appointment shall serve the prescribed period of probation.

(2) If at any time before the end of the probationary period of a constable, the Commissioner has reasonable grounds to believe that the interest of the Police Service will not be served by retaining the constable, the Commissioner may summarily dismiss him.

(3) A constable who successfully completes his period of probation and who satisfies all other prescribed requirements is eligible to be confirmed as a constable.

(4) A police officer who is promoted shall serve the prescribed period of probation.

Contract officers 22. (1) The Commissioner may appoint on contract for any specified period and for any specified purpose a person who is not a police officer.

(2) Where the Commissioner considers that there is no suitable candidate in the Service available for appointment, he may having regard to the qualifications, experience, skills and merit of a person who is not in the Service, appoint such a person as a police officer on contract for any specified period.

(3) The Authority may appoint on contract a person, who is not a police officer, as a police officer to the rank of Senior Superintendent and above for any specified period.

PART V

DISCIPLINE

Disciplinary powers 23. (1) In the exercise of the powers vested in him by section 123A of the Constitution, the Commissioner shall comply with the procedures set out in the regulations.

(2) The Commissioner may delegate any power vested in him by section 123A(2)(c) of the Constitution, except the power of removal, to any police officer not below the rank of an Assistant Superintendent.

(3) The Commissioner shall establish in every Division and Branch of the Police Service a Standing Disciplinary Tribunal to conduct disciplinary proceedings.

(4) A Standing Disciplinary Tribunal shall consist of one or more police officers not below the rank of Assistant Superintendent.

PART VI

DUTIES OF THE PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT IN RELATION TO THE POLICE SERVICE

24. (1) In addition to any duties or powers imposed or Powers and duties conferred by any other written law, the Personnel Department shall, in relation to the Police Service, carry out such duties as are imposed on it by this Act and without limiting the generality of the foregoing shall have the following duties:

- (a) to maintain the classification of the Police Service;
- (b) to keep under review the remuneration to police officers;
- (c) to provide for and establish procedures for consultation and negotiation between the Department and the appropriate recognized association in respect of—
  - (i) the classification of offices;
  - (ii) any grievances;
  - (iii) the terms and conditions of employment.

(2) The Minister of Finance may make recommendations with regard to the remuneration to be paid to police officers.

(3) The Minister of Finance shall, before making recommendations pursuant to subsection (2)—

- (a) consider the requirements of the Police Service;
- (b) take into account the rates of pay and other terms and conditions of employment prevailing in Trinidad and Tobago for similar work outside the Police Service and the relationship of the duties of the various grades within the Police Service; and
- (c) be guided by the considerations set out in section 20(2)(a) to (f) of the Industrial Relations Act.

Chap. 88:01

(4) Before making any recommendations under subsection (2), the Minister of Finance may require the Personnel Department to consult with representatives of the appropriate recognized association with respect to the matters specified in subsection (1).

Consultation with appropriate recognized association

25. Where the representatives of the appropriate recognized association request a consultation with respect to matters specified in section 24(1) or the Minister of Finance directs that such consultation is necessary and desirable, the Personnel Department shall consult with the representatives of such association in respect of those matters.

Where no agreement reached after consultation

26. Where the Personnel Department consults and negotiates with representatives of the appropriate recognized association with respect to matters specified in section 24 at the request of such representatives, the Personnel Department and the appropriate recognized association are, within twenty-one days of the commencement of such consultation and negotiation, or within such further period as may be agreed upon, unable to reach agreement on any matter, the Personnel Department or the appropriate recognized association shall report the matter on which no agreement has been reached to the Minister of Finance, and on such report being made a dispute is deemed to exist as to the matter.

27. (1) Where the Personnel Department, before making proposals with respect to matters specified in section 24, does not consult with representatives of the appropriate recognized association, the Personnel Department shall submit the proposals to the appropriate recognized association for consideration and agreement.

Submission of proposals to appropriate recognized association for approval

(2) Where the Personnel Department and the appropriate recognized association are, within twenty-one days of the submission of the proposals as mentioned in subsection (1), or within such further period as may be agreed upon, unable to reach agreement on any matter, the Personnel Department or the appropriate recognized association shall report the matter on which no agreement has been reached to the Minister of Finance, and on such report being made a dispute is deemed to exist as to the matter.

28. (1) Where the Personnel Department and the appropriate recognized association reach agreement on any of the matters specified in section 24(1) after consultation and negotiation in accordance with section 26 or 27, the agreement shall be recorded in writing and shall be signed by the Chief Personnel Officer on behalf of the Minister of Finance and by a person designated by the appropriate recognized association on behalf of the association.

Agreement to be recorded and signed

(2) An agreement recorded and signed in accordance with subsection (1) shall be binding upon the State and the police officers to whom the agreement relates.

Personnel Department subject to Minister of Finance under this Part
Chap. 23:01

29. Notwithstanding section 13(1) of the Civil Service Act, in the exercise of its duties and functions under sections 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28 of this Act, the Personnel Department shall be subject to the directions of the Minister of Finance.

Dispute to be referred to Special Tribunal

30. (1) Where a dispute is deemed to exist under section 26 or 27, the Minister of Finance shall refer the dispute for settlement to the Special Tribunal within twenty-one days from the date on which the dispute was reported to him.

(2) Where the Minister fails to refer the dispute to the Special Tribunal within the time specified in subsection (1), the appropriate recognized association that is a party to the dispute may do so within twenty-one days from the date of the expiration of the time specified in the said subsection.

(3) For the purpose of this Act, the parties to a dispute shall be the Chief Personnel Officer and the appropriate recognized association.

Special Tribunal
power of award

31. (1) The Special Tribunal shall hear and determine any dispute referred to it under section 30 and shall make an award on the dispute.

(2) An award made by the Special Tribunal shall be final.

(3) In addition to taking into account any submission, argument and evidence presented or tendered by or on behalf of the appropriate recognized association and the Chief Personnel Officer, the Special Tribunal in its judgment shall be guided by the considerations set out in section 20(2)(a) to (f) of the Industrial Relations Act.

32. (1) An award made by the Special Tribunal under section 31 shall be binding on the parties to the dispute and all police officers to whom the award relates and continue to be binding for a period to be specified in the award, not less than five years from the date upon which the award takes effect.

Award to be binding on parties for fixed period

(2) The Special Tribunal may, with the agreement of the parties to an award, review such award at any time after the third anniversary of the making of such award.

PART VII

POLICE SERVICE ASSOCIATIONS

33. A police officer shall not be a member of any trade union, or any body or association registered under the Trade Unions Act.

Prohibition against membership of trade union
Chap. 88:02

34. Police officers may form associations, and such associations shall, subject to this Act, be recognized by the Minister of Finance as appropriate associations for consultation and negotiation in respect of any of the matters specified in section 24 and any other matters concerning police officers.

Representation of police officers

35. The President may make regulations setting out the conditions to be satisfied and the procedure to be adopted for the recognition by the Minister of Finance of associations formed pursuant to section 34.

Regulations governing recognition

36. (1) Every appropriate recognized association shall make rules providing for the administration of the association and for carrying out the objects of the association, and with respect to such rules the following provisions shall have effect:

Appropriate recognized association to make rules

- (a) the rules shall contain provisions in respect of the several matters mentioned in the Fourth Schedule;

Fourth Schedule

(b) a copy of the rules and any amendment shall be delivered by the association to every police officer who is a member of that association on demand and on payment of the prescribed sum.

(2) The rules, including any amendment, of an association shall be filed with the Registrar General and have effect from the date on which they are filed unless some later date is specified from which they shall have effect.

Complaints by members of appropriate recognized association

37. (1) On any complaint in writing signed by not less than fifty financial members of an association representing police officers in the Second Division or, in the case of an association representing police officers in the First Division, not less than five financial members, respecting the rules or business of the association, the Registrar General shall inquire into the complaint and may either dismiss it or if, after giving the complainants and the association an opportunity of being heard, he finds the complaint to be justified may either—

- (a) so declare, but make no order under this subsection; or
- (b) make an order specifying the steps which the association must take to remove the cause for complaint.

(2) The Registrar General shall furnish to the appropriate recognized association a written statement, with reasons, for any decision which he gives under this section.

(3) A decision made by the Registrar General shall be binding on the association and failure to comply with such a decision shall render the association liable to withdrawal of recognition by the Minister of Finance.

(4) The Registrar General may order—
