

AS AMENDED IN THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

No. 22 of 2005

Fourth Session Eighth Parliament Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

BILL

AN ACT to amend the Bail Act, 1994

THE BAIL (AMENDMENT) (NO. 2) BILL, 2005

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The Bill seeks to amend the Bail Act, 1994 (Act No. 18 of 1994) to make certain violent offences under the Bail Act, 1994 and the offence of kidnapping for ransom under the Kidnapping Act, 2003 (Act No. 21 of 2003) non-bailable offences. The Act would be inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution and is therefore required to be passed by a special majority of three-fifths of the members of each House.

Clause 1 provides for the short title.

Clause 2 provides that the Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with the Constitution.

Clause 3 seeks to provide the interpretation provision.

Clause 4 seeks to amend section 5 of the Act by inserting two new subsections after subsection (3). These two new subsections provide that the court would not grant bail where a person is charged with a violent offence listed in Part III of the First Schedule and has been convicted on two prior occasions for any of the violent offences listed therein.

Clause 5 seeks to amend the Act by inserting a new section after section 5 to make the offence of kidnapping for ransom a non-bailable offence. However, where a person is not brought to trial within sixty (60) days of the date of charge that person is entitled to apply to a Judge in Chambers for bail.

Clause 6 seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Act. Part II is repealed and substituted with a new Part II. A new Part III would be inserted to provide a list of violent offences.

Clause 7 provides for this Act to continue in force for one year with a provision for its continuance for a further period by a subsequent Act of Parliament, subject to the special majority requirements prescribed under the Constitution.
