The Bill contains 37 clauses.

Clause 1 would provide the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 seeks to provide for the Act to come into operation on a date to be fixed by the President.

Clause 3 seeks to amend the Interpretation Act, Chap. 3:01 to provide for any reference to a “Clerk of the Court” or a “Clerk of the Peace” in any written law to be construed as a reference to a “Senior Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court” or a “Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court”.

Clause 4 seeks to amend the Summary Courts Act, Chap. 4:20 to empower the Chief Justice to appoint locations for the holding of Summary Courts, designate a court location for the hearing of specific types of cases by a Summary Court, to assign Magistrates to more than one court location and to issue Practice Directions and Practice Guides in furtherance of the Act and Rules made pursuant to the Act. The provision would also allow for certain duties exercisable by Magistrates to be exercisable by a Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court instead, for the amendment of the contents of the statement of the offence in criminal proceedings before a Summary Court and for the payment of a penalty in relation to a warrant to be made to a Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court instead of to a Clerk of the Court.

Clause 5 seeks to amend the Petty Civil Courts Act, Chap. 4:21 to provide for the centralization of magisterial districts in Trinidad and Tobago.

Clause 6 seeks to amend the Sentencing Commission Act, Chap. 4:32 to provide for the findings of the Sentencing Commission to be submitted only to the Chief Justice.

Clause 7 seeks to amend the Judicial and Legal Service Act, Chap. 6:01 to provide for the terms and conditions of the Registrar General to be equivalent to those of a Chief Legal Officer. The clause also provides for the functions and the reporting obligations of Senior Magistracy Registrars and Clerks of the Court and Magistracy Registrars and Clerks of the Court, and for the removal of the obligation for Masters to report instead to the Registrar but will require Masters to report to the Court Executive Administrator.

Clause 8 seeks to amend the Evidence Act, Chap. 7:02 to substitute the reference to a Clerk of the Peace in the Second Schedule, with a reference to a Senior Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court or a Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court.

Clause 9 seeks to amend the Malicious Damage Act, Chap. 11:06 to empower the Rules Committee established under the Supreme Court of Judicature Act to make Rules of Court under the Act.

Clause 10 seeks to amend the Coinage Offences Act, Chap. 11:15 to provide for an oath to be made before a Justice of the Peace and to empower a Justice of the Peace to issue a warrant to seize counterfeit coins and coining tools.

Clause 11 seeks to amend section 67 of the Sexual Offences Act, Chap. 11:28 to remove the requirement for an Order to amend Schedules 1 and 2 by affirmative resolution of Parliament and to provide for those Schedules to be amended by Order subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

Clause 12 seeks to amend the Indictable Offences (Preliminary Enquiry) Act, Chap. 12:01 to provide for where the trial of an accused is heard at a prison and the accused is not released on bail thereafter, for the accused to remain in the custody of the Keeper of the prison and for the Court to cause the warrant of commitment to be delivered to the Keeper.

Clause 13 seeks to amend the Community Service Orders Act, Chap. 13:06 to provide for references to court locations and not to magisterial districts, as a result of the new subdivision of magisterial districts throughout Trinidad and Tobago.

Clause 14 seeks to amend the Defence Act, Chap. 14:01 to provide for the inclusion of the Air Guard as a unit of the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force and to empower the President and the Chief of Defence Staff with powers of interdiction. The clause would also provide for the appointment of a Vice Chief of Defence Staff, from among commissioned officers of the Force and the Vice Chief of Defence Staff shall assist the Chief of Defence Staff in the performance of his duties.

Clause 15 seeks to amend the Firearms Act, Chap. 16:01 to provide for the extension of the period to pay fees in respect of the grant of a firearms licence or certificate.

Clause 16 seeks to amend the Explosives Act, Chap. 16:02 to provide for a licence to be issued on the order of a Magistrate and to be signed by the Magistrate of a Clerk. The clause would also provide for the amendment to the Explosives (Manufacture of Fireworks) Order, Chap. 16:02, to allow for a licence to be issued on the order of a Magistrate and to be signed by the Magistrate of a Clerk and for an application to be filed with a Clerk and not with a Magistrate.

Clause 17 seeks to amend the Registrar General Act, Chap. 19:03 to provide for fees for services provided by the Registrar General to be paid electronically and for the replacement of the Fee Book with a requirement for the Registrar General to keep entries of payments in an electronic or other form. The clause also specify that the office of the Registrar General will not be open for the transaction of business on Saturdays, Sundays, Carnival Monday, Carnival Tuesday, public holidays; the next following working day after Christmas day, Monday and Tuesday after Easter and on any day as the Minister with responsibility for legal affairs may direct.

Clause 18 seeks to amend the Cinematograph Act, Chap. 20:10 to make reference to a licensing committee for the relevant Municipality under the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap. 25:04, consequent upon the amendment to the licensing committee under the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10.

Clause 19 seeks to amend the Registration of Clubs Act, Chap. 21:01 to make reference to a licensing committee for the relevant Municipality under the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap. 25:04, consequent upon the amendment to the licensing committee under the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10.

Clause 20 seeks to amend the Theatres and Dance Halls Act, Chap. 21:03 to make reference to a licensing committee for the relevant Municipality under the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap. 25:04, consequent upon the amendment to the licensing committee under the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10.

Clause 21 seeks to amend section 32 of the Electronic Transactions Act, Chap. 22:05 to enable Regulations to define which Electronic Authentication Products will make qualified electronic signatures. The clause also provides for an amendment to section 33 of the same Act to ensure that Electronic Authentication Service Providers have oversight over all electronic authentication products.

Clause 22 seeks to amend the Elections and Boundaries Commission (Local Government and Tobago House of Assembly) Act, Chap. 25:50 to provide an extension for the submission of the Tenth Report of the Elections and Boundaries Commission, to 11th June, 2021.

Clause 23 seeks to amend the Mental Health Act, Chap. 28:02 to provide for the Chief Justice and not the Chief Magistrate to appoint a person to represent the Judiciary as a member of the Psychiatric Hospital Tribunal. The clause would also empower the representative of the Judiciary to have two alternates who will be appointed on the recommendation of the Chief Justice.

Clause 24 seeks to amend of the Children Act, Chap. 46:01 to correct an erroneous reference to the offence of sexual communication with a child instead of sexual grooming of a child in section 25B(3). The clause would also provide for a child who commits certain traffic violations to be referred to a child traffic counselling programme.

Clause 25 seeks to amend the Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Act, Chap. 48:50 to provide for an extension of the period within which a transfer of registration is to be completed and within which a driving permit, taxi driver licence, badge certificate or other document will expire. The clause would also allow for a child who commits certain traffic violations to be referred to a child traffic counselling programme.

Clause 26 seeks to amend section 8 of the Conservation of Wild Life Act, Chap. 67:01 to provide for the reconstitution of the Wild Life Conservation Committee from nine members to seven members and with four of the members being selected from specified disciplines or groups.

Clause 27 seeks to amend section 47A(2) of the Value Added Tax Act, Chap. 75:06 to allow for bonds issued under section 47A to be taxable or non-taxable.

Clause 28 seeks to amend the Customs Act, Chap. 78:01 to include a definition of “pleasure craft” consistent with the same definition in the Shipping Act, Chap. 50:10 and to provide for the prescribing of new declaration forms in relation to pleasure crafts along with the requirement to complete those forms.

Clause 29 seeks to amend the Companies Act, Chap. 81:01 to provide for an extension of the period during which a name may be reserved for a company.

Clause 30 seeks to amend the Moneylenders Act, Chap. 84:04 to make reference to a licensing committee for the relevant Municipality under the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap. 25:04, consequent upon the amendment to the licensing committee under the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10.

Clause 31 seeks to amend the Pawnbrokers Act, Chap. 84:05 to make reference to a licensing committee for the relevant Municipality under the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap. 25:04, consequent upon the amendment to the licensing committee under the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10.

Clause 32 seeks to amend the Licensing of Dealers (Precious Metals and Stones) Act, Chap. 84:06 to make reference to a licensing committee for the relevant Municipality under the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap. 25:04, consequent upon the amendment to the licensing committee under the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10.

Clause 33 seeks to amend the Old Metal and Marine Stores Act, Chap. 84:07 to make reference to a licensing committee for the relevant Municipality under the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap. 25:04, consequent upon the amendment to the licensing committee under the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10.

Clause 34 seeks to amend the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10 to provide for licensing districts and licensing committees to be formed in relation to each Municipality under the Municipal Corporations Act, Chap. 25:04, as a result of the new subdivision of magisterial districts throughout Trinidad and Tobago. The clause would also provide for the Chief Justice to designate the Chairman of a licensing committee to be a Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court and for Senior Officer of the District Courts to be the Deputy Chairman of the committee.

Clause 35 seeks to amend the Administration of Justice (Indictable Proceedings) Act, 2011 to provide for proceedings under the Act to be held by means of a video link and for the record of the proceedings to be in the form of a video recording.

Clause 36 seeks to amend the Criminal Division and District Criminal and Traffic Courts Act, 2018 to provide for the interpretation of certain references in any written law and to provide for the Senior Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court to report to the Chief Justice instead of the Chief Magistrate.

Clause 37 seeks to amend the Electronic Payments into and out of Court Act, 2018 to correct an error in drafting.
