COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES
(Member for Diego Martin West)

Mrs. Kamla Persad-Bissessar SC (Siparia): Thank you, Madam Speaker. In accordance with Standing Order 32 of this House, I seek your leave to raise a matter concerning privileges of this House. The matter is in respect of statements made on the 16th of September, 2017, by the hon. Prime Minister and Member of Parliament for Diego Martin West whilst attending a health fair at the Diego Martin Boys RC School. When interviewed, the Prime Minister and Member for Diego Martin West stated:

If there is wrongdoing, identify the wrongdoing and hold people accountable. I don't know that we should be overdoing it and I am not afraid of identifying people I associate with because I do not knowingly associate with crooks, except in Parliament.

These statements were broadcast on national television and reported in the print and electronic media. In his statements, the hon. Prime Minister and Member for Diego Martin West made damaging, disparaging, negative and contemptuous reflections and imputations upon Members of this House including the Speaker and the parliamentary staff. The Prime Minister and Member for Diego Martin West, inter alia, reflected upon Members of this House including the Speaker and parliamentary staff, asserted that:

(i) Members of this House, including the Speaker and parliamentary staff, were crooks;

(ii) Members of this House, including the Speaker and parliamentary staff, were persons of ill and questionable character;

(iii) Members of this House, including the Speaker and parliamentary staff, were involved in illegal and criminal activities;

(iv) Members of this House, including the Speaker and parliamentary staff, were persons of ill repute.

Hon. Member: What a waste of time.

Mrs. K. Persad-Bissessar SC: The Member imputed that:

(i) Members of this House including the Speaker—

Madam Speaker: Member. May I ask please that you observe the Standing Orders, please, for Members who are not speaking. Please continue.

Mrs. K. Persad-Bissessar SC: Thank you, Madam Speaker—imputed that:

- (i) Members of this House, including the Speaker and parliamentary staff, were not persons who law-abiding citizens should associate with;
- (ii) Members of this House, including the Speaker and staff, were not to be trusted in carrying out their public duty.

Madam Speaker, parliamentary privilege is the hallmark of parliamentary practice offering protection from interference from whatever source and safeguarding the freedom, authority and dignity of the Houses of Parliament. [Desk thumping]

The Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, the Standing Orders of the House of Representatives and May's Parliamentary Practice provide guidance as to the law, practice and usage with respect to parliamentary privilege. In particular, sections 55 and 56 of the Constitution and Standing Order 32 and May's Parliamentary Practice, 24th Edition, pages 202, 203, 258 and 262 to 264.

May's also speaks to constructive contempt as including reflections on the House and upon Members even though the particular individuals are not named or otherwise indicated. See page 258 of May's where it also states that constructive contempt also includes molestation, page 262.

In addition to cases referred to in May's about reflections/molestation as a contempt, cases can be found in the Commonwealth and in our own jurisdiction. The House of Representatives in 2009 sanctioned UDeCOTT for the publication of a statement in the form of a full-page ad in response to a statement made by an MP, concluding that it was a contempt of the House by seeking to intimidate the Member in the execution of his duties as a Member of the House.

Madam Speaker, our very existence here in this Chamber is by way of constitutional mandate. The protection that is afforded by the Constitution and the Standing Orders and the settled practice of this House is designed to protect the sanctity and the dignity not only of Members but also of this honourable House. [Desk thumping]

The statements of the hon. Prime Minister and Member for Diego Martin West were intentional, reckless and contemptuous and reflect upon all Members of this House, [Desk thumping] including the Speaker and the parliamentary staff. These statements, most certainly, reflect upon the character of all Members and were uttered in such a manner to bring this House and Members of this House into odium and ridicule.

The statements made by the hon. Prime Minister, Member for Diego Martin West, have had the effect of severely adversely affecting the credibility of members of this House in the performance of their duties as Members of Parliament.

The Prime Minister and Member for Diego Martin West also reflects upon the constitutional presence and conduct of Members in this House and this may in itself amount to contempt with respect to the constitutional role and conduct of Members in our parliamentary democracy.

The reflections referred to above from May's and those in our own jurisdiction amounting to contempt are similar to those made by the Prime Minister and Member for Diego Martin West; whether or not the particular Members are named or otherwise indicated does not matter, May's page

258. In the context in which the statements were made, it is clear that the conduct of a Member and/or Members of this House was being reflected upon. Indeed, given the nature and character of the statements made and the subject matter upon which the Prime Minister and Member for Diego Martin West was commenting, it is clear that the statements were made as a reflection upon the character and reputation of Members.

In the circumstances, Madam Speaker, I wish to submit that the Prime Minister, Member for Diego Martin West, has committed a contempt by his actions and statements which have negatively reflected on Members of the House bringing them all into ridicule, odium and contumely. His actions have also brought indignity to the House of Representatives.

I therefore request that this matter be referred to the Committee of Privileges for its consideration and report. [Desk thumping]

Madam Speaker: Hon. Members, I hereby reserve my determination on this matter and shall give my decision at a subsequent date.
