Department Overview

Mission
The Judiciary works towards the resolution of conflict in the society by resolving disputes which arise out of the operation of laws and involve the application of remedies and the punishment of offenders.

Vision
The Judiciary of Trinidad and Tobago provides an accountable court system in which timeliness and efficiency are the hallmarks, while still protecting integrity, fairness, equality and accessibility and attracting public trust and confidence.

The Judiciary of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, headed by the Chief Justice, comprises the Supreme Court of Judicature and the Magistracy. The Judiciary is the third arm of the State. As in most democratic countries, the Judiciary is established by the Constitution to operate independently from the Executive as a forum for the timely resolution of legal disputes between individuals and bodies including the state.

The Supreme Court of Judicature is made up of The Court of Appeal and the High Court, as is provided under section 99 of the Constitution which states: “There shall be a Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago consisting of a High Court and a Court of Appeal with such jurisdiction and powers as conferred on these Courts respectively by this Constitution or any other law.”

The Magistracy under a Chief Magistrate comprises the Courts of Summary Criminal Jurisdiction and the Petty Civil Courts. These Courts are established respectively under the Summary Courts Act. Ch. 4:20, and the Petty Civil Courts Act. Ch. 4:21 of the Laws of Trinidad and Tobago.

The Chief Justice bears overall responsibility for furthering the mission and vision of the Judiciary, and is in charge of the general administration of justice in Trinidad and Tobago. The Chief Magistrate reports to the Chief Justice.

Masters of the High Court have similar jurisdiction to Judges of the High Court sitting in Chambers, except for matters where statute expressly limits their jurisdiction (such as the exercise of powers to imprison or to grant interlocutory injunctions).

Legislation amending the Supreme Court of Judicature Act and passed in the Parliament earlier this year, approved the largest increase to the statutory complement of Judges since the country’s independence in 1962. The new provisions allow for 36 Judges, an increase of 13 at the High Court level, and for 12 Judges, up from nine in the Court of Appeal. There are at present three Masters of the High Court.

Chief Justice: The Honorable Chief Justice. Mr. Justice Ivor Archie O.R.T.T.²

Court Executive Administrator (Accounting Officer): Master Christie-Anne Morris-Alleyne³

Deputy Registrar and Marshal (Ag): Ms. Kimberly Prescott

Courts and Divisions under Judiciary

The following lists the various Courts under the Judiciary:

Supreme Court
The Supreme Court of Judicature is made up of The Court of Appeal and the High Court, as is provided under section 99 of the Constitution which states: “There shall be a Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago consisting of a High Court and a Court of Appeal with such jurisdiction and powers as conferred on these Courts respectively by this Constitution or any other law.”

High Court
The High Court, with locations at the Hall of Justice and the Family Court in Port of Spain, San Fernando and Scarborough, Tobago, exercises original jurisdiction over indictable criminal matters, family matters, and in civil matters (inclusive of interlocutory applications and informal motions in Chamber Courts).4

Court of Appeal
The Court of Appeal has appellate jurisdiction over both the Magistracy and the High Court, inclusive of the Magisterial and High Court Sections of the Family Court. At present, an appeal from the Court of Appeal in Trinidad and Tobago lies to the Privy Council as of right, or with the leave of that Court.5

Magistracy

The Magistracy exercises original jurisdiction in relation to summary criminal matters. The Magistrates’ Courts also facilitate Preliminary Inquiries into serious criminal matters to determine whether a prima facie case has been established against an accused person before he or she can be indicted for trial at the High Court Division of the Supreme Court. The Petty Civil Court Division of the Magistracy deals with civil matters involving small money claims of less than $15,000.00.6

Family Court

The Family Court falls under the Family and Children Division of the High Court, Judiciary of Trinidad and Tobago. It is a problem-solving court which seeks to resolve conflict in family matters by providing specialist support where necessary. Family matters include divorce, legal custody, maintenance, property issues and access.7

Children Court

The Children Court is a Court for children - anyone under the age of 18. The Court became operational on February 28, 2018, and hears cases involving children who are accused of breaking the law, children in need of supervision (CHINS), and children who are in need of care and protection. The Children Court also hears children drug and mental health matters.8

Department of Court Administration

The DCA was created as a part of the Judiciary of Trinidad and Tobago for this very purpose. It operates as an extension of the Judge’s mandate for managing the Courts and their cases under the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice.

With a range of specialised units under its purview, the DCA’s role involves the study, review, implementation and management of the systems, procedures and processes utilised to manage cases brought before the courts. It also ensures that case flow management techniques are adequately supported for minimum delay between the filing and disposition of a case, while ensuring due process is afforded equally to all who appear before the courts. In this regard, the DCA’s role has not only been to ensure that cases are managed efficiently and effectively from commencement to disposition, but also, and most importantly, to preserve through that management, impartiality and integrity in the adjudication process as gatekeepers of the principles of due process.8

Judicial Education Institute

Continuous judicial education is essential for the Judiciary to fulfil its mandate to the public and its stakeholders to deliver justice in an effective and efficient manner, while sustaining public trust and confidence. It is out of this necessity that the Judicial Education Institute of Trinidad and Tobago (JEITT) was created – a distinct but integral part of the Judiciary, committed to the establishment's core objective: the administration and achievement of justice.

In each of its training programmes and lectures, the JEITT operates with the following Mission Statement in mind:

"To promote excellence in the administration of justice in the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago through continuous training and development of Judges, other judicial officers and non-judicial staff attached to the Judiciary."

The training and development programmes delivered are the hallmark of the Institute as it strives to improve the functioning and competence of the Judiciary and its judicial officers, keeping all au courant with changes that may influence the Judiciary’s operations.

Focusing on the vision "Transformation through Education," the JEITT facilitates the objective of the Judiciary becoming a high-performing, professional organisation.9
